1 AN ACT ...; relating to: municipal clerks copying poll lists for candidates.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, a municipal clerk is required upon request to provide a candidate one copy of the current poll list for those areas for which he or she is a candidate. Current law specifies that if a copying machine is unavailable, the clerk is required to remove the lists from the office to make copies and return the lists immediately thereafter.

This bill removes any reference to a copying machine.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

2 SECTION 1. 6.46 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

3 ~~6.46 (2)~~ Poll lists shall be open to public inspection, except as provided in s.
4 6.47. The municipal clerk shall furnish upon request to each candidate who has filed
5 nomination papers for an office which that represents at least part of the 6 municipality one copy of the current poll list for those areas for which he or she is a
7 candidate for a fee not to exceed the cost of reproduction. If a copying machine is not
