1     Relating to: proclaiming May 2019 as Paper and Forestry Products Month in 2           Wisconsin.

3           Whereas, trees and Wisconsin's sustainable well-managed forests, both 4     private and public, are the backbone supporting Wisconsin's valued way of life and 5     the basis for the social, economic, and ecological well-being of Wisconsinites and the 6     forest products industry; and

7           Whereas, Wisconsin's lumber and wood products industry predates the state 8     and papermaking began in 1848, three months before Wisconsin became a state, and 9     paper manufacturing has been a cornerstone of the state's economy for more than 10    165 years, leading the nation in paper manufacturing for more than 60 years; and

11          Whereas, the logging, papermaking, and printing industries significantly 12    contribute to Wisconsin's economic health and well-being by employing more than 13    106,000 women and men in family-supporting jobs whose annual income exceeds 14    $6.4 billion; and

1           Whereas, the paper and forest products industries contribute an estimated 2           $238 million in state and local taxes; and

3           Whereas, Wisconsin produces a greater diversity of paper and wood products 4           than any other state in the Union; and

5           Whereas, as 2019 has been declared by Governor Tony Evers as “The Year of 6           Clean Drinking Water” and Speaker Robin Vos has established a “Water Quality
7           Task Force,” it is important to note that two-thirds of the nation’s drinking water 8           comes from forests; and

9           Whereas, thanks to sustainable forestry practices, Wisconsin forests are 10          growing one and a half times more timber than is being harvested each year and 11          there are more trees in forests throughout the United States than there were 100 12          years ago; and

13          Whereas, the paper, pulp, forestry, and printing industries are sustainable, 14          environmentally-conscious and are a major driver of Wisconsin’s economy; and

15          Whereas, Wisconsin’s nearly 17 million acres of forest lands and its millions of 16          urban trees significantly enhance the quality of life in our great state, contribute to 17          water quality, support and enhance soil quality, provide habitat and sustenance for 18          terrestrial and aquatic flora and fauna, and offer four-season recreational and

Subject: LRB 3052/3047

Hi Cathlene,

Would it be possible to make a couple small changes to LBR 3052 and LRB 3047 and have them re-jacketed? This is the resolution to proclaim May 2019 as Paper and Forest Products Month in Wisconsin.

The two changes we would like is....

- Page 2, Lines 7 and 8 after "Water Quality Task Force," should read:

"Approximately two-thirds of the nation's freshwater resources originate on forested lands, both public and private. Some 180 million people in over 68,000 communities rely on these forested lands to capture and filter their drinking water; and"

- We would also like to add the Wisconsin River Papermaking Museum to the list of copies of the JR that should be provided.

If we could please have this done as soon as possible, we would really appreciate it. We'd like to send out the updated draft this afternoon. We will be sending the old jacket back.

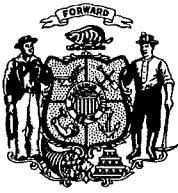

Thank you so much!

Sincerely,

Mitch

-3047 can be jacketed once it's out of editing.

Both are with Chris C in editing.
