2017 Wisconsin Act 264 requires DHS, beginning on October 1, 2019, to require all able-bodied adults, with some limited exceptions, who seek benefits from the FoodShare program to participate in the FoodShare employment and training program, known as FSET, unless they are already employed. This bill eliminates that requirement. FoodShare is also known as the food stamp program and the federal Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

2 SECTION 1. 49.79 (9) (a) 1g. of the statutes is amended to read:
3 49.79 (9) (a) 1g. Except as provided in subds. 2. and 3., beginning October 1,
4 2019, the department shall require, to the extent allowed by the federal government,
5 ~~all able-bodied adults in this state to participate in the employment and training~~

1 ~~program under this subsection, except for able-bodied adults who are employed, as~~
2 ~~determined by the department. The department may require other able individuals~~ ✖
3 ~~who are 18 to 60 years of age, or a subset of those individuals to the extent allowed~~
4 ~~by the federal government, who are not participants in a Wisconsin Works~~
5 ~~employment position to participate in the employment and training program under~~
6 ~~this subsection.~~

Nathan,

You are right. I struck too many "the department" phrases. I will restore one of them. Thanks for catching that.

Tami,

On page two line 2 of draft 1729/P1 the words "the department" have been struck, creating a sentence that reads funny. Is this acceptable or is this a typo?
