RE: Statutory Language Drafting Request - 2019-21

Sorry about that one! The intent is to expand the current law language by removing references to the armed forces – so if your spouse is relocated by his or her employer, you are still eligible for UI if you voluntarily quit because commuting is impractical.

Hi Sara,

So, this is what the statute currently says:

- (t) Paragraph (a) does not apply if the department determines that all of the following apply to an employee:
- 1. The employee's spouse is a member of the U.S. armed forces on active duty.
- 2. The employee's spouse was required by the U.S. armed forces to relocate to a place to which it is impractical for the employee to commute.
- 3. The employee terminated his or her work to accompany the spouse to that place.

This looks just like the request, below. Was there something else that needs to change?

Thank you,

M.A.

AN ACT ...; relating to: the budget.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill expands the conditions under which an individual is entitled to Unemployment Insurance (UI) benefits when that individual voluntarily terminates (quits) employment. Under current law, unless an exemption applies, if an individual quits his or her job, the individual is generally ineligible to receive UI benefits until the individual earns wages or certain other amounts after the week in which the individual quits equal to at least 6 times the individual's weekly UI benefit rate.

One of the exemptions under current law is for an employee whose spouse is a member of the U.S. armed forces on active duty, if the employee's spouse is required to relocate to a location from which it is impractical for the employee to commute, and the employee relocates with his or her spouse.

This bill repeals the requirement that, in order for the exemption to apply, the employee's spouse be a member of the U.S. armed forces. Instead, the bill extends the exemption to cover employees whose spouses are required by any employer to relocate.

FOR 2019-2021 BUDGET -- NOT READY FOR INTRODUCTION

AN ACT ...; relating to: the budget.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau EMPLOYMENT

This bill expands the conditions under which an individual is entitled to Unemployment Insurance (UI) benefits when that individual voluntarily terminates (quits) employment. Under current law, unless an exemption applies, if an individual quits his or her job, the individual is generally ineligible to receive UI benefits until the individual earns wages or certain other amounts after the week in which the individual quits equal to at least six times the individual's weekly UI benefit rate.

One of the exemptions under current law is for an employee whose spouse is a member of the U.S. armed forces on active duty, if the employee's spouse is required to relocate to a location from which it is impractical for the employee to commute, and the employee relocates with his or her spouse. This bill repeals the requirement that, in order for the exemption to apply, the employee's spouse be a member of the U.S. armed forces. Instead, the bill extends the exemption to cover any employee whose spouse is required by an employer to relocate.
