Under current law, ~~the Department of Children and Families~~ is directed to allocate in each fiscal year specific amounts of money, including federal moneys received under the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) block grant program, for various public assistance programs (commonly known as the TANF schedule). Under current law, DCF may reallocate funds that are allocated for one purpose in the TANF schedule for any other purpose in the TANF schedule through passive review by ~~the Joint Committee on Finance~~. Also under current law, if the TANF moneys received from the federal government are less than the amounts appropriated for the purposes under the TANF schedule, DCF is required to create a plan for reducing the amounts of moneys allocated under the TANF schedule and to carry it out subject to passive review by ~~the Joint Committee on Finance~~. This bill replaces passive review by ~~the Joint Committee on Finance~~ with a requirement that the secretary of administration must approve a reallocation or a plan to reduce the moneys allocated under ~~the TANF~~.
