Reports to WEDC concerning job elimination or relocation

This bill requires that a recipient of a grant, loan, or tax credit from WEDC report certain job losses or job relocations outside Wisconsin to WEDC within seven business days after the jobs are eliminated or relocated. If the participant shows that extenuating circumstances prevent meeting that seven-day requirement, the participant may submit the report within 30 days. The bill further requires that no grant, loan, or tax credit from WEDC may be used to relocate jobs outside of Wisconsin or to reduce net employment in Wisconsin.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

1. Reports to WEDC concerning job elimination or relocation

This bill requires that a recipient of a grant, loan, or tax credit from WEDC report certain job losses or job relocations outside Wisconsin to WEDC within seven business days after the jobs are eliminated or relocated. If the recipient shows that extenuating circumstances prevent meeting the seven-day requirement, the recipient may submit the report within 30 days. The bill further requires that no grant, loan, or tax credit from WEDC may be used to relocate jobs outside Wisconsin or to reduce net employment in Wisconsin.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

2 SECTION 1. 238.105 of the statutes is created to read:

1 238.105 Job elimination or relocation. (1) Each recipient of a grant, loan,
2 or tax credit under this chapter shall report to the corporation each full-time job in
3 this state that the recipient eliminates or relocates outside this state within 7
4 business days after the job is eliminated or relocated and shall describe in detail the
5 circumstances of that job elimination or relocation. If extenuating circumstances
6 make it impossible for the recipient to submit the report within 7 business days, the 7 recipient may submit the report within 30 days after the full-time job is eliminated
8 or relocated.

9 (2) A recipient of a grant, loan, or tax credit under this chapter may not use the
10 grant, loan, or tax credit to reduce net employment in this state or relocate jobs
11 outside this state.
