Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill creates the crime of theft of mail, which is taking a letter, postcard, or package from a residence or other building. Under the bill, a person is guilty of a Class A misdemeanor if he or she takes fewer than ten pieces of mail, a Class I felony if he or she takes at least ten but fewer than 30 pieces of mail, and a Class H felony if he or she takes 30 or more pieces of mail or if the mail belongs to an adult at risk or an elder adult at risk.

Because this bill creates a new crime or revises a penalty for an existing crime, the Joint Review Committee on Criminal Penalties may be requested to prepare a report.
