Description
resident tuition at University of Wisconsin System institutions and technical colleges for children and spouses of certain members of the armed forces

Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

Assembly Bill 757 creates a nonresident tuition exemption at Wisconsin Technical Colleges for a person who is the child or spouse of a relocated active duty member of the US armed forces if:

- the person has been accepted for admission to a technical college,
- the service member resided in the state at the time the person was accepted for admission, but the service member was subsequently relocated and stationed in another state, and
- after the person's admission and initial enrollment, the person has remained continuously enrolled in the technical college.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications

If the proposed legislation was enacted, the Wisconsin Technical College System districts would see a small reduction in tuition revenue.
