Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

Investigators of an officer-involved shooting are obligated under current law to provide a report to the district attorney. The bill obligates the district attorney to provide the report to a judge appointed special prosecutor. Therefore, there are no new obligations placed on the Division of State Patrol.

This bill will have no fiscal effect on the Department of Transportation. It will create no new expenditures or revenues.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications

This bill will have no fiscal effect on the Department of Transportation. It will create no new expenditures or revenues.
