Description online dashboards reporting on the performance of certain state agencies with respect to core agency functions

Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

This bill requires state agencies, including DPI, to develop and maintain a publicly available dashboard on its Internet site (or on an Internet site maintained by the Department of Administration) that reports on the department's performance of its core functions, by July 1, 2022.

The development and quarterly updating of the required dashboard would require staff time, likely more time initially and then limited staff time for the quarterly updating. The bill does not provide additional resources to DPI for this purpose, thus the work would have to be absorbed within DPI's existing resources.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications
