Minority Report

On May 10, 2021, Senators Larson, Erpenbach, Roys, and Pfaff offered the following minority report, pursuant to Senate Rule 28, to the Senate Committee on Universities and Technical Colleges' Report on Informational Hearings:

Democratic Senators on the Committee on Universities and Technical Colleges Unanimously Object to Committee Report

Democratic members on the Senate Committee on Universities and Technical Colleges issued this statement objecting to passage of the so-called 'committee report' entitled "A Wisconsin Roadmap to Success in Higher Education for the Twenty-First Century."

This 'report' was crafted without the input of committee members and does not reflect any collaborative work done between committee members or the public. Most egregiously, our shared values of accessible and affordable higher education throughout our state are directly threatened by this report's self-declared recommendations. The report elevates the very un-Wisconsin idea of consolidating programs and shuttering UW campuses around the state, limiting access for students throughout the state.

This unusual document was drafted by the committee chair and apparently derived from “invite-only” informational hearings. The chair did not communicate his intention to produce a report to those he invited to testify. Furthermore, committee members were only afforded 48 hours to review a 93-page report, with no notice it is coming—demonstrating contempt for ordinary professional communications and courtesies.

The Wisconsin Idea teaches us that our UW System is meant to propel the entire state forward, reaching far beyond the confines of the classroom and improving our communities. The unique local relationships between campuses and their communities spur economic growth, local innovation, and provide strong relationships of reliance and resilience.

Should the legislature act on these ill-advised recommendations, it will lead to a reduction in educational access, a loss of campus identity, and well as significant economic and cultural loss for many communities across the state. It is the wrong path forward.

This report has been offered by:

CHRIS LARSON
Senator

JON ERPENBACH
Senator

KELDA HELEN ROYS
Senator

BRAD PFAFF
Senator

Senator Bewley, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate adjourn in honor of a man who will live in the memories of countless children and adults in the small town of Haugen, Wisconsin. Can you recall the small corner grocery with creaky wooden floors, shelves stacked with boxes and cans to the ceiling, a butcher in the back cutting and wrapping meat in thick paper and tying it with a string? Swante James Hill, Sr. would be the guy at the front, sitting in a chair behind the old chunky and very loud cash register, penny candy all lined up, to the left, newspapers, almost always a day old and free, slouching to the right. It was a time so different from today. It was possible to walk on these floors, to buy bait as well as angel food cake mix, and have a cold cup of coffee. But in March, Swante's health failed him and he passed away on April 24, 2021. Prior to owning the Village Grocery, Swante graduated from college, served in the Army in Germany, married his beloved Yvonne and raised five kids. He had a meaningful career at Carnation Corporation and Jerome foods. But it was in Haugen, from his office at the Village Grocery, that we saw the fullness of this kind man. Along with his children, Swante was active in 4H, Jaycees, Kiwanis, the Haugen Area Community Club, school sports and the American Legion. He lived a life of service, by being truthful, hardworking, generous and kind. May he and his iconic Village Grocery be long remembered.

Senator Bernier, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate adjourn in honor of Municipal Clerks Week, to shine a light on how hard they work.
