motor vehicle transfers of ownership and providing a penalty.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill prohibits the transfer of a motor vehicle to a buyer who does not display a valid operator’s license.

Current law requires the owner of a motor vehicle (owner), when transferring an interest in the vehicle, to record certain information on the vehicle’s certificate of title and deliver the certificate of title to the person taking the interest in the vehicle (buyer). The owner must also disclose in writing the vehicle’s mileage and, if applicable, certain prior damage to or uses of the vehicle. Upon receiving the certificate of title, the buyer must promptly complete an application for a new certificate of title and submit the application and the old certificate of title to the Department of Transportation. However, a different procedure applies for motor vehicles purchased from motor vehicle dealers, which generally do not hold title in their own names. When a dealer transfers an interest in a motor vehicle owned by the dealer, the dealer processes the certificate of title application for the vehicle and submits it directly to DOT.

This bill prohibits an owner, dealer, or salesperson from transferring ownership of a motor vehicle, other than a collector vehicle, to a buyer unless the buyer displays an operator’s license issued to the buyer that appears valid on its face and represents that the operator’s license is valid. A buyer may not receive delivery of the vehicle unless the buyer has met these requirements. The bill provides exceptions for transfers of vehicles to persons who are unlicensed because they cannot demonstrate U.S. citizenship or legal presence in the United States and for transfers of vehicles to nonlicensed persons if the person provides reasonable proof that the motor vehicle is intended for transfer to a family member and that the family member to whom the motor vehicle will be transferred possesses a valid operator’s license. An owner, dealer, salesperson, or buyer that violates these requirements may be required to forfeit not more than $1,000 or, if the violation is committed with intent to defraud, not more than $5,000.
