AN ACT to amend 48.433 (4), 48.433 (5) (intro.), 48.433 (6) (a), 48.433 (7) (a) (intro.), 48.433 (8) (a) and 48.433 (8) (b); and to create 48.433 (8g) of the statutes; relating to: access to a deceased adoptee's original birth certificate and information about birth parents by an adult child of the adoptee.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau
This bill provides an avenue for the adult offspring of a person whose birth parents’ parental rights have been terminated to access the offspring’s parent’s original birth certificate and information about the birth parents.
Under current law, the Department of Children and Families administers an adoption search program under which a person 18 years of age or over whose birth parent’s rights have been terminated in this state may request DCF to provide the person with his or her original birth certificate and any information that is available to DCF regarding the identity and location of the person’s birth parents. With certain exceptions, DCF may disclose the requested information only if DCF has on file an unrevoked affidavit from each known birth parent authorizing DCF to disclose that information. However, if a birth parent who has not filed an affidavit is known to be deceased, DCF must inform the requester that the birth parent is deceased, provide the requester with the identity of the deceased birth parent, and, if both birth parents are deceased, provide the requester with his or her original birth certificate.
Under the bill, the adult child of a person whose birth parents’ parental rights have been terminated in this state (offspring) may request DCF to provide the offspring with the original birth certificate of the offspring’s parent and any information that is available to DCF regarding the identity of the birth parents of the offspring's parent. If the offspring's parent and both birth parents of the offspring's parent are deceased, regardless of whether either birth parent has filed an affidavit, DCF must disclose the requested information. If any of those individuals are still living, DCF may not disclose the requested information.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
