To repeal and recreate assembly rule 9 (1); relating to: establishing the assembly committee structure and names for the 2021-2022 legislative session.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau
This resolution establishes the assembly committee structure and names for the 2021-2022 legislative session.

Resolved by the assembly, That:

SECTION 1. Assembly rule 9 (1) is repealed and recreated to read:

ASSEMBLY RULE 9 (1) As early as possible in each legislative biennium, the following standing committees of the assembly shall be appointed by the speaker:

(a) Aging and long-term care, committee on.
(b) Agriculture, committee on.
(c) Campaigns and elections, committee on.
(d) Children and families, committee on.
(dm) Colleges and universities, committee on.
(e) Constitution and ethics, committee on.
(f) Consumer protection, committee on.
(g) Corrections, committee on.
(gm) Criminal justice and public safety, committee on.
(h) Education, committee on.
(hm) Energy and utilities, committee on.
(i) Environment, committee on.
(j) Family law, committee on.
(jb) Financial institutions, committee on.
(jm) Forestry, parks, and outdoor recreation, committee on.
(js) Government accountability and oversight, committee on.
(k) Health, committee on.
(km) Housing and real estate, committee on.
(L) Insurance, committee on.
(m) Jobs and the economy, committee on.
(n) Judiciary, committee on.
(o) Labor and integrated employment, committee on.
(om) Local government, committee on.
(p) Mental health, committee on.
(q) Public benefit reform, committee on.
(r) Regulatory licensing reform, committee on.
(rm) Rural development, committee on.
(s) Science, technology, and broadband, committee on.
(t) Small business development, committee on.
(tg) Sporting heritage, committee on.
(u) State affairs, committee on.
(uh) Substance abuse and prevention, committee on.
(v) Tourism, committee on.
(w) Transportation, committee on.
(x) Veterans and military affairs, committee on.
(y) Ways and means, committee on.
(z) Workforce development, committee on.

(END)