Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill reduces the number of individual income tax brackets from four to three. Under current law, there are four income tax brackets for single individuals, certain fiduciaries, heads of households, and married persons. The brackets are indexed for inflation.

For single individuals, certain fiduciaries, and heads of households, the tax rate is 3.54 percent of taxable income from zero to $11,970; 4.65 percent of taxable income for income exceeding $11,970, but not exceeding $23,930; 6.27 percent of taxable income exceeding $23,930, but not exceeding $263,480; and 7.65 percent of taxable income exceeding $263,480.

For married individuals filing jointly, the tax rate is 3.54 percent of taxable income from zero to $15,960; 4.65 percent of taxable income for income exceeding $15,960, but not exceeding $31,910; 6.27 percent of taxable income for income exceeding $31,910, but not exceeding $351,310; and 7.65 percent of taxable income exceeding $351,310.

For married individuals filing separately, the tax rate is 3.54 percent of taxable income from zero to $7,980; 4.65 percent of taxable income for income exceeding $7,980, but not exceeding $15,960; 6.27 percent of taxable income for income exceeding $15,960; and 7.65 percent of taxable income exceeding $263,480.
