Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

This bill allows for decisions of political subdivisions related to land use to be reviewed by circuit court judges through a certiorari review. Although these decisions can already be appealed to the circuit court, this bill creates more specific procedures for this process. It is unclear whether this change will result in the number of appeals being filed increase, decrease, or remain the same. Either way, judges will need to be educated about these changes - specifically, the new procedural requirements and deadlines.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications

Indeterminate.
