Note: Chapter MVD 26 as it existed on August 31, 1990, was repealed and a new chapter Trans 196 was created effective September 1, 1990.

Trans 196.01 Purpose and scope. (1) As authorized by ss. 85.16 (1), 227.11 (2) (a), 341.19, 341.255 (1) and 342.14 (7), Stats., the purpose of this chapter is to establish the department's administrative interpretation of ss. 20.905, 85.14 (1) (a), 341.255, 342.08, and 342.14 (7), Stats., relating to counter service and special handling service for certificates of title or registration.

(2) This chapter applies to any applicant obtaining counter service or requesting special handling service for certificates of title or registration.

History: Cr. Register, August, 1990, No. 416, eff. 9-1-90.

Trans 196.02 Definitions. In this chapter:

(1) "Applicant" means a natural person, partnership, association, or body politic or corporate, or the designee of a natural person, partnership, association, or body politic or corporate.

(2) "Application" includes documents, forms, information or fees which must be submitted to the department before the department may issue evidence of ownership or registration, or both, for a single vehicle.

(3) "Counter" means a facility that is established by the department at which an application may be submitted in person by an applicant.

(4) "Counter service" means issuance of evidence of ownership or registration from an application submitted to a counter.

(5) "Department" means the department of transportation.

(6) "Evidence of ownership or registration" includes the following:

- (a) Certificate of registration.
- (b) Certificate of title.
- (c) License plate, including a temporary license plate.
- (d) Receipt.
- (e) Special identification card for individuals with physical disabilities.
- (f) Validation sticker.

(7) "Special handling" means a request by an applicant for accelerated service, fast handling, or priority service in the issuance of certificate of title or registration.

History: Cr. Register, August, 1990, No. 416, eff. 9-1-90; 2013 Wis. Act 363: am. (7), r. (8) Register May 2014 No. 701, eff. 6-1-14; CR 22-048: am. (6) (e) Register July 2023 No. 811, eff. 8-1-23.

Trans 196.03 Counter service and fees. (1) The department shall collect the applicable fee for counter service as specified in s. 341.255 (2), Stats.

(2) Except as provided in sub. (3), the charge for counter service shall be computed as a fee per application.

(3) The department shall charge the counter service fee for each application submitted to a counter, unless one or more of the following apply:

(a) The application is also subject to a special handling fee under s. Trans 196.04.

(b) The department requests the applicant to deliver an application or evidence of ownership or registration to a service counter for the purpose of correcting an error by the department.

(c) The applicant requests a duplicate registration month or year validation sticker, and department records show that the applicant paid for the original validation sticker.

(4) A counter service fee shall be refunded if the department determines that evidence of ownership or registration was not issued to the applicant.

History: Cr. Register, August, 1990, No. 416, eff. 9-1-90.

Trans 196.04 Special handling service and fees.

(1) Except as provided in sub. (3), the department shall charge a fee for special handling service as follows:

- (a) For processing an application for a certificate of title, $4.
- (b) For processing an application for a combination of a certificate of title and registration, $4.
- (c) For processing an application for registration only, $2.

(2) The department may charge only one special handling service fee under sub. (1) per application.

(3) The department shall charge a special handling service fee when an applicant does one of the following:

(a) Mails an application to the department with a request for special handling, and the department satisfies one of the following conditions:

1. Issues a certificate of title or registration within 2 working days of receipt of the request.

2. Contacts the applicant by telephone within 2 working days of receipt of an incomplete application for a certificate of title or registration.

3. Mails a written response to the applicant within 2 working days of receipt of an incomplete application for a certificate of title or registration.

(b) Submits an application to the department and requests issuance of a certificate of title in less than the 3 days normally required for the department to check the application against the records of stolen vehicles in the department of justice as prescribed by s. 342.08, Stats.

(c) Requests the department to locate an application previously submitted to the department and the department locates the application.

(4) The special handling fee shall be refunded if the department determines that the special handling service for which the fee was collected was not performed.

Note: The mailing address for requests for special handling of an application for a certificate of title or registration is: Division of Motor Vehicles, Fast Service Processing, P.O. Box 7306, Madison, Wisconsin, 53707-7306.

Note: As of September 1, 1990, the special department telephone registration service is limited to a pilot project using a special telephone number. The special telephone number and information about the use of the service may be obtained from the Inquiry and Tracing Unit, (608) 266-1466.

Published under s. 35.93, Stats. Updated on the first day of each month. Entire code is always current. The Register date on each page is the date the chapter was last published.

Note: The forms MV2, License Plate Renewal Notice (postcard), and MV3, License Plate Renewal Notice (statement), are not required to renew a vehicle registration or to use the special department telephone registration service, but provide information regarding the renewal of vehicle registration. The department mails the forms to the owner of a vehicle approximately 30 days prior to the expiration of a vehicle's registration.
