

The State of Wisconsin

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 114

WHEREAS, 1987 marks the two-hundredth year of the United States Constitution; and

WHEREAS, the Bicentennial of the Constitution is an occasion for celebrating the establishment of our country as the United States of America under the social and political experiment of a Free Republic; and

WHEREAS, the Chief Justice of the United States has called upon the states to join the celebration of the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution; and

WHEREAS, it is appropriate that state government create a framework within which such a celebration may occur;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ANTHONY S. EARL, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, by the authority of Wis. Stats. §14.019, create the Wisconsin Bicentennial Committee on the Constitution. Governor Anthony S. Earl and Chief Justice Nathan Heffernan shall serve as honorary Co-Chairs and Justice Roland Day as Chair. Members will be appointed by the Chairmen.

The Commission shall prepare an overall program for commemorating the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution in 1987, and shall plan, encourage, develop and coordinate observances and activities commemorating the historic events that preceded and are associated with the United States Constitution.

This Order shall expire January 1, 1989.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 31st day of October in the year one thousand nine hundred eighty-six.

ANTHONY S. EARL
