2. Form, Style and Placement in Administrative Code

In the amendment to s. HSS 146.03 (10), the period is deleted after the word “Tetanus” and should be shown under the strike mark. However, a preferable alternative would be to end all of the subsections in s. HSS 146.03 with periods, thereby eliminating the need to move the word “and” and change a period to a semicolon if new subsections are added in the future. [See s. 1.03 (intro.), Manual.]
