

PROPOSED ORDER OF
DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH SERVICES TO ADOPT RULES

The Wisconsin Department of Health Services proposes to repeal DHS 12.03 (15) and to create DHS 12.03 (20m), 12.115 and Table DHS 12.115, relating to background checks of individuals who provide personal care services, and affecting small businesses.

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED RULE

Statute interpreted:

Section 50.065 (2m) (a) 1. and 4. and (b), Stats.

Statutory authority:

Section 50.065 (2m) (d), Stats., as created by 2007 Wisconsin Act 172, and 227.11 (2) (a), Stats.

Explanation of agency authority:

Section 50.065 (2m) (d), Stats., requires the Department to promulgate rules to specify crimes for which an entity must disclose a conviction to a client or the client's guardian of a caregiver who is assigned to provide personal care services to a client in the client's personal residence and to specify who is a "substitute caregiver".

Section 227.11 (2) (a), Stats., allows agencies to promulgate rules interpreting the provision of any statute enforced or administered by the agency if the agency considers it necessary to effectuate the purpose of the statute.

Related statute or rule:

Chapter DHS 13.

Plain language analysis:

Section 50.065 (2m) (d), Stats., requires the Department to promulgate rules to specify crimes for which an entity must disclose to a client or the client's guardian, a conviction of a caregiver who is assigned to provide personal care services to the client in the client's personal residence and to specify who is a "substitute caregiver". These requirements were established under 2007 Act 172.

The proposed rule includes a definition of the term "substitute caregiver." The proposed rule also includes a list of crimes that require disclosure for caregivers providing personal care services. This list includes all of the crimes currently listed under s. 50.065 (1) (e), Stats., which entities already use, including entities serving persons under the age of 18, to determine an individual's eligibility to work for the entity as a caregiver, and includes the following additional crimes:

- Theft
- Robbery
- Financial card transaction crimes
- Identity theft
- Drug crimes

A substantially similar emergency rule has been in effect beginning November 1, 2008.

Summary of, and comparison with, existing or proposed federal regulations:

No known existing or proposed related federal regulations exist.

Comparison with rules in adjacent states:

Illinois:

Illinois has no list of crimes for which an entity must disclose a conviction to a client or the client's guardian of a caregiver who is assigned to provide personal care services.

Iowa:

Iowa has no list of crimes for which an entity must disclose a conviction to a client or the client's guardian of a caregiver who is assigned to provide personal care services.

Michigan:

Michigan has no list of crimes for which an entity must disclose a conviction to a client or the client's guardian of a caregiver who is assigned to provide personal care services.

Minnesota:

Minnesota has no list of crimes for which an entity must disclose a conviction to a client or the client's guardian of a caregiver who is assigned to provide personal care services.

Summary of factual data and analytical methodologies:

The Department solicited comments from representatives of the Disability Rights Wisconsin, Inc., the Board on Aging and Long Term Care (BOALTC), the Wisconsin Coalition of Aging Groups (CWAG), Independence First, Association of Retarded Citizens, Wisconsin Personal Services Association (WPSA), Community Alliance of Providers of Wisconsin (CAPOW), representatives from the Home Care Advisory Committee (HCAC) and the Home Care Consumer Advisory Committee (HCCAC), and Wisconsin legislators. Representatives from these organizations reviewed the initial draft of the rule, including a list of crimes and a definition of "substitute caregiver". The Department revised the rule based upon comments received.

Analysis and supporting documents used to determine effect on small business:

The small businesses affected by the proposed rule are temporary employment agencies and home health agencies, and any other agency that may assign individuals to provide personal care services to clients in the clients' private residence. The proposed rule would not have a fiscal impact on small businesses over and above the costs imposed by the requirements established by Act 172 under s. 50.065 (2m), Stats., for entities to conduct background checks, including criminal history checks, on individuals the entity assigns to provide personal care services in a client's private residence and disclose the results to the client or the client's guardian.

Effect on small business:

The proposed rule would not have a fiscal impact on small businesses over and above the costs imposed by the requirements established by Act 172 under s. 50.065 (2m), Stats., for entities to conduct background checks, including criminal history checks, on individuals the entity assigns to provide personal care services in a client's private residence and disclose the results to the client or the client's guardian.
