9. Policy Problem Addressed by the Rule

The determination to provide a waiver process is in statute. The policy issues considered in developing the criteria for the waiver include the following:

- Not discouraging child care providers from becoming out-of-home care providers for children in the child welfare system.
 - Supporting the efforts of teen parents to graduate from high school.
 - Not creating a situation in which a child care provider caring for his or her own child with special needs is not able to provide appropriate care for the children attending the provider's child care center.

None

12. Summary of Rule's Economic and Fiscal Impact on Specific Businesses, Business Sectors, Public Utility Rate Payers, Local Governmental Units and the State's Economy as a Whole (Include Implementation and Compliance Costs Expected to be Incurred)

The rule has a positive economic impact on child care providers who are parents and are granted a waiver to allow assistance to send their own children to another child care provider.

The department received a comment from Paul Hoffman with Crossroads Community Church, a licensed group child care center. He commented that he does not think it is right for a parent who works at a childcare facility to not be eligible for child care assistance if the parent would be eligible if he or she worked anywhere else.

Department response: The statute prohibits child care licensees and certified child care operators from receiving child care assistance unless they qualify for a waiver. The criteria to determine eligibility for a waiver are in the emergency and proposed permanent rules. Neither the statute nor rules apply to employees.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES Fiscal Estimate & Economic Impact Analysis

There are some costs to child care administrative agencies that must determine whether a parent is eligible for a waiver as provided in s. 49.155 (3m) (d), Stats., but there are no costs associated with the specific criteria in the proposed rules.

13. Benefits of Implementing the Rule and Alternative(s) to Implementing the Rule
Section 49.155 (3m) (d) 4., Stats., directs the department to promulgate the rule. Also, see policy considerations above.

14. Long Range Implications of Implementing the Rule
None

15. Compare With Approaches Being Used by Federal Government
NA

16. Compare With Approaches Being Used by Neighboring States (Illinois, Iowa, Michigan and Minnesota)
The department is not aware of any statutes or rules in adjacent states that prohibit otherwise eligible parents who are child care providers from receiving assistance to send their own children to another child care provider.
