SS 043-13

Notice of Proposed Order of the Office of the State Public Defender Adopting Rules (Wis. Admin. Code Chapter PD 3.02(1), 6.01, & 6.02(1))

The State of Wisconsin Public Defender Board (SPD) proposes an order to amend PD 3.02(1), cost of retained counsel; PD 6.01, payment for legal representation; and PD 6.02(1), discount option.

Statutes Interpreted

Sections 977.02(3)(a) and (4m), 977.075

Statutory Authority

Sections 977.02(3)(a) and (4m), 977.075

Agency Authority

Section 977.02(3)(a) requires the public defender board to consider the anticipated costs of effective representation for the type of case in which the person seeks representation. Section 977.02(4m) requires the state public defender board to promulgate rules for payments to the state public defender under s. 977.075. Section 977.075 requires the state public defender board to establish by rule a fee schedule that sets the amount that a client responsible for payment shall pay for the cost of the legal representation if the client does not pay the applicable discount fee.

Plain Language Analysis

This proposed rule will revise three sections of the PD administrative code to include a new “felony diversion” case category. This proposed case category will apply to cases in which the SPD and the prosecutor negotiate felony diversion agreements as an alternative to the filing of formal criminal charges.

SPD case categories reflect the anticipated cost of retained counsel and set the required payment amounts for legal representation. The proposed rule adds the felony diversion case category to three schedules: cost of retained counsel, PD § 3.02(1); payment for legal representation, PD § 6.01; and discount option, PD § 6.02(1). The SPD currently provides representation in diversion cases within the case category of “special proceedings.” The new felony diversion case category will more accurately reflect the amount of time attorneys spend when representing clients in felony diversion cases.

Summary of, and Comparison with, Existing or Proposed Federal Statutes and Regulations

There are no existing or proposed federal regulations that address the activities of the proposed rules.

Comparison with Rules in Adjacent States

Adjacent states (Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, and Minnesota) generally require defendants to reimburse the state or county for the cost of public counsel. Those states do not have rules like Wisconsin regarding the cost of retained counsel, payment for legal representation, and discount options for particular case types.

Summary of Factual Data and Analytical Methodologies

Analysis and Supporting Documents Used to Determine Effect on Small Business or in Preparation of an Economic Impact Analysis

The rule will require individuals who are represented in felony diversion cases to pay $240 toward the cost of their representation, which is lower than for other felony cases. Clients also have the option to pay a lower discount amount of $60 as provided in PD § 6.02(1). As this rule would impact only individual clients of the SPD, there is no anticipated economic impact of implementing the rule.
