Currently there is a note for this section indicating various statutory references have been changed. This rule updates the section with current statutory references and eliminates the note.

10. Summary of the businesses, business sectors, associations representing business, local governmental units, and individuals that may be affected by the proposed rule that were contacted for comments.

This rule was posted for 14 days for economic comments and none were received.

11. Identify the local governmental units that participated in the development of this EIA.

None. This rule does not affect local governments.

12. Summary of Rule's Economic and Fiscal Impact on Specific Businesses, Business Sectors, Public Utility Rate Payers, Local Governmental Units and the State's Economy as a Whole (Include Implementation and Compliance Costs Expected to be Incurred)

This rule will not have an economic or fiscal impact on specific businesses, business sectors, public utility rate payers, local governmental units or the state's economy as a whole. This rule only corrects statutory references in the current rule.

13. Benefits of Implementing the Rule and Alternative(s) to Implementing the Rule

The benefit is to clean-up the rule to match current statutory references.

14. Long Range Implications of Implementing the Rule

The long range implication is the rule will have clarity without having to refer to the note to understand the references.

15. Compare With Approaches Being Used by Federal Government

None.

16. Compare With Approaches Being Used by Neighboring States (Illinois, Iowa, Michigan and Minnesota)

This rule purely updates the rule to reflect the current Wisconsin statute references. A comparison of the underlying rule which is not changing, Illinois and Iowa do not address correction facilities separately; Michigan's section relating to return or exchange of health items has a definition for "state correctional facility"; and Minnesota only allows the return of drugs and devices by hospitals, nursing homes and assisted living facilities.
