Policy Problem Addressed by the Rule

The change in statutory definition, which will be reflected in the rule, was designed to specify that the intentional use of an educational agency's equipment to download, view, solicit, seek, display or distribute pornographic material was included in the definition of immoral conduct and was conduct for which a WI educator license could be revoked by the State Superintendent.

Summary of Rule's Economic and Fiscal Impact on Specific Businesses, Business Sectors, Public Utility Rate Payers, Local Governmental Units and the State's Economy as a Whole (Include Implementation and Compliance Costs Expected to be Incurred)

Local:

None. The definition of immoral conduct was changed in 2011 Wisconsin Act 84; modification of this rule to reflect that statutory change will have no fiscal effect.

State:

No fiscal effect.

Benefits of Implementing the Rule and Alternative(s) to Implementing the Rule

The Legislature intended to clarify what was included in the definition of immoral conduct by specifying that the definition includes the intentional downloading, viewing, or distributing of pornography on an educational agency's equipment.

Long Range Implications of Implementing the Rule

Modification of the rule will align the DPI Administrative Code with statutes.
