Yes No

Policy Problem Addressed by the Rule

The rule does not create or revise policy, other than to reflect current law and department policy.

Summary of Rule's Economic and Fiscal Impact on Specific Businesses, Business Sectors, Public Utility Rate Payers, Local Governmental Units and the State's Economy as a Whole (Include Implementation and Compliance Costs Expected to be Incurred)

As indicated in the attached fiscal estimate, General fund condition statements have already accounted for the fiscal effect of exemptions created under previous acts. The proposed rule has no fiscal effect.

No comments concerning the economic effect of the rule were submitted in response to the department's solicitation.

Benefits of Implementing the Rule and Alternative(s) to Implementing the Rule

Clarifications and guidance provided by administrative rules may lower the compliance costs for businesses, local governmental units, and individuals.

If the rule is not implemented, Chapter Tax 11 will be incomplete in that it will not reflect current law or department policy.

Long Range Implications of Implementing the Rule

No long-range implications are anticipated.

Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate:

The proposed rule modifies Chapter TAX 11 of the administrative code to reflect statutory changes, clarify existing rules, and correct an error in the current rule provisions.

The proposed rule includes:

- The addition of a sales/use tax exemption for the sale of aircraft parts and services performed to aircraft created under 2013 Wisconsin Act 185.
- The addition of a sales/use tax exemption for equipment and certain building materials used in a fertilizer blending, feed, milling, or grain drying operation created under 2013 Wisconsin Act 324.
- The addition of a sales/use tax exemption for property used by certain commercial radio and television stations created under 2013 Wisconsin Act 346.
- Updates to sales/use tax exemptions for the printing industry amended by 2013 Wisconsin Act 145.
- Updates to the "grocers' guide" list of taxable and exempt food items to reflect current law.
- Updates to the rules to reflect statutory provisions related to "utility terrain vehicles" created under 2011 Wisconsin Act 208.
- The addition of a sales and use tax deduction for bad debts incurred by private label credit card companies and dual purpose credit card companies created under 2013 Wisconsin Act 229.
- The correction of an error in TAX 11.945(2) regarding the sourcing of "telecommunications messaging services."
- Clarifications to existing rules relating to aircraft, common motor carriers, and construction contractors.

General fund condition statements have already accounted for the fiscal effect of exemptions created under previous acts. The proposed rule has no fiscal effect.
