11. Policy Problem Addressed by the Rule The Marriage and Family Therapy, Professional Counseling and Social Work Examining Board completed a comprehensive review of chapters MPSW 1 to 20 to update the standards of practice regarding telehealth. The Board made revisions to provide clarity, remove obsolete provisions and ensure the chapters are current with professional telehealth standards and practices. The changes include:
 Addition of a definition of "telehealth" per 2021 Wisconsin Act 121. Creation of a new subsection that establishes standards of telehealth practice. Amendment of the definitions of "face-to-face" and "supervision" throughout the chapters to include telehealth practice. Amendment of the provisions of unprofessional conduct to incorporate telehealth practice.
 Summary of the Businesses, Business Sectors, Associations Representing Business, Local Governmental Units, and Individuals that may be Affected by the Proposed Rule that were Contacted for Comments. The rule draft will be posted on the department's website for 14 days to solicit economic impact comments from local governments and small businesses.

 14. Summary of Rule's Economic and Fiscal Impact on Specific Businesses, Business Sectors, Public Utility Rate Payers, Local Governmental Units and the State's Economy as a Whole (Include Implementation and Compliance Costs Expected to be Incurred) DSPS estimates a total of $5,400 in one-time costs for staffing to implement the rule. The estimated need for 0.1 limited term employees (LTE) is attributed rule promulgation and legal counsel. The estimated costs cannot be absorbed in the currently appropriated agency budget.

15. Benefits of Implementing the Rule and Alternative(s) to Implementing the Rule

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES Fiscal Estimate & Economic Impact Analysis

The benefits of implementing the rule are to clarify the telehealth practice of marriage and family therapists, professional counselors, and social workers and to bring the Code up to current standards of practice. The alternative to promulgating rules would be to not update the rules. This would leave the rules inconsistent with statutory provisions, which could create confusion with stakeholders.

16. Long Range Implications of Implementing the Rule

The long range implications of implementing this rule is clear requirements for the regulation and licensure of marriage and family therapists, professional counselors, and social workers in Wisconsin.

17. Compare With Approaches Being Used by Federal Government $N\!/\!A$

18. Compare With Approaches Being Used by Neighboring States (Illinois, Iowa, Michigan and Minnesota) Illinois:

Illinois regulates marriage and family therapy, professional counseling, and social work practice through the Department of Financial and Professional Regulation. The Clinical Social Work and Social Work Practice Act establishes two exemptions for social work telehealth practices if the social worker is not a resident of Illinois and performs services for another nonresident if a previously established relationship existed and the social worker holds a proper license to perform the services in the state or country they reside. [225 ILCS 20/4]

Illinois Telehealth Act establishes definitions, practice authority, and use of telehealth services for all professions, occupations, and business operations. [225 ILCS 150]

Iowa:

Iowa Board of Social Work establishes that a licensee shall assess a client's suitability and capacity for online and remote services during the first contact with the client and keep assessing whether in-person or remote consultations should be done before providing social work services. This assessment shall be continually done throughout the course of the professional relationship and the social worker shall take reasonable steps to ensure the client's identity, ability to consent to services, and location. [645 IAC 282.2 (19)]

Iowa Board of Behavioral Scientists, which includes marriage and family therapists and mental health counselors, states that services provided to an individual within the state either through telephone or other electronic means constitute the practice of marital and family therapy and mental health counseling and shall be subject to regulation, regardless of the location of the therapist or counselor. [645 IAC 31.18 (154D)]

Michigan:

Michigan statutes and rules do not specifically address how marriage and family therapists, professional counselors, and social workers should provide services using telehealth.

Minnesota:

Minnesota statutes and rules do not specifically address how marriage and family therapists, professional counselors, and social workers should provide services using telehealth.
