only a lack of clarity on what is required for a temporary license, but also a potential for the temporary license to be used as a substitute for permanent licensure due to the way the rule is written.

17. Compare With Approaches Being Used by Federal Government

None.

18. Compare With Approaches Being Used by Neighboring States (Illinois, Iowa, Michigan and Minnesota)

Illinois:

The Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation is responsible for the licensure and regulation of the practice of massage therapy in Illinois, with input from the Illinois Massage Licensing Board. The Illinois Department is also responsible for the promulgation of rules to implement certain sections of the Illinois Massage Therapy Practice Act. This Act contains requirements for applications, licensure, and discipline for massage therapists [225 Illinois Compiled Statutes ch. 57]. Illinois does not issue temporary licenses to practice massage therapy.

Iowa:

The Iowa Board of Massage Therapy is responsible for the licensure and regulation of the practice of massage therapy in Iowa. Chapter 152C of the Iowa Code includes statutory requirements for licensure, composition and powers of the Iowa Board, and discipline for massage therapists [Iowa Code ch. 152C]. The Iowa Administrative Code details rules relating to the practice of massage therapy, including requirements for temporary licensure. In Iowa, an individual who is licensed to practice massage therapy in another jurisdiction, but is unable to meet the requirements of licensure by endorsement is eligible for a temporary license. Such a temporary license is valid for up to one year and is not renewable. Any application for a temporary license must include a plan for meeting the requirements for regular licensure within one year. [645 Iowa Administrative Code ch. 131 s. 131.6].

Michigan:

The Michigan Board of Massage Therapy is responsible for the licensure and regulation of massage therapy practice in Michigan. Act 368 Article 15 Part 179A of the Michigan Compiled Laws includes the regulations for massage therapy in Michigan, among several other occupations. Some of the requirements in this part include those for licensure, renewal, and duties of the Michigan Board. [Michigan Compiled Laws ss. 333.17951-333.1769]. Michigan does not issue temporary licenses to practice massage therapy.

Minnesota:

The Minnesota Department of Health's Office of Unlicensed Complementary and Alternative Health Care Practice (OCAP) investigates complaints and takes enforcement actions against massage therapists for violations of prohibited conduct. However, neither OCAP nor any other statewide agency or board oversees the licensing of massage therapists [Minnesota Statutes Chapter 146A].
