CERTIFICATION

I, O. J. Hughes, Secretary of the State Highway Commission, do hereby certify that the attached is a true and exact copy of an order adopted and approved by the Commission on January 4, 1957.

O. J. Hughes, Secretary
State Highway Commission of Wisconsin

Dated at Madison, Wisconsin, this 8th day of January, 1957.

EXTRACTED FROM THE MINUTES OF THE
STATE HIGHWAY COMMISSION OF WISCONSIN
MEETING OF JANUARY 4, 1957

9. ADMINISTRATIVE RULES:

The attention of the Commission was directed to the changes, which were proposed by the Commission on November 14, 1956, in its rules appearing in the Wisconsin Administrative Code, which proposed changes were published in the Wisconsin Administrative Register for November, 1956.

No petition for a public hearing having been received during the statutory 30-day period provided for in Section 227.02(1)(e), Wisconsin Statutes, it was moved, seconded, and carried that the following amendments, additions, and rescissions of the Commission's rules be adopted, that the amendments, additions, and rescissions be filed, and that they take effect on the first day of the month following publication as provided in Chapter 227, Wisconsin Statutes:

ORDER OF THE STATE HIGHWAY COMMISSION
ADOPTING, AMENDING, AND RESCINDING RULES.

Pursuant to authority vested in the State Highway Commission by Sections 85.445, 85.45, and 85.53, Wisconsin Statutes, the State Highway Commission hereby repeals, amends, and adopts rules as follows:

Section Ky. 30.02(5)(f) of the Wisconsin Administrative Code is amended to read:

(f) The holder of a special permit shall be subject to the provisions of all pertinent statutes and valid ordinances, rules, and regulations by any state agency or subdivision of the state except as to such provisions as are modified by the conditions of the permit. The permittee shall comply with all statutory provisions and regulations as to permits, licensing, and motor vehicle equipment.

Section Ky. 30.02(5)(g) is amended to read:

(g) During any transportation in the course of which there is a violation of any of the conditions specified by the terms of the permit, the permittee shall be subject to, and the permit shall not protect him from the provisions of the statutes relating to motor vehicle equipment, size, and weight. False information given in the application or failure to comply with the conditions of the permit shall be just cause for the summary suspension or revocation, upon notice in writing, of any or all permits held by said permittee and the withholding of permits on his applications. The length of suspension, or other matters pertaining to the suspension or revocation shall be determined by the Commission, which may conduct a hearing upon request of the permittee subsequent to the suspension or revocation. Suspended and revoked permits shall be returned to the Commission.

The first two sentences of Section Hy. 30.04(6)(c) are amended to read:

(c) During any transportation in the course of which there is a violation of any of the conditions specified by the terms of the permit, the permittee shall be subject to, and the permit shall not protect him from the provisions of the statutes relating to motor vehicle equipment, size, and weight. False information given in the application or failure to comply with the conditions of the permit shall be just cause for the summary suspension or revocation, upon notice in writing, of any or all permits held by said permittee and the withholding of permits on his applications.

Section Hy. 30.04(6)(a) is amended to read:

(a) The holder of an annual permit shall be subject to the provisions of all pertinent statutes and valid ordinances, rules, and regulations by any state agency or subdivision of the state except as to such provisions as are modified by the conditions of the permit. The permittee shall comply with all statutory provisions and regulations as to permits, licensing, and motor vehicle equipment.

Section Hy. 30.06(6)(d) is amended to read:

(d) The holder of a general permit shall be subject to the provisions of all pertinent statutes and valid ordinances, rules, and regulations by any state agency or subdivision of the state except as to such provisions as are modified by the conditions of the permit. The permittee shall comply with all statutory provisions and regulations as to permits, licensing, and motor vehicle equipment.

The first two sentences of Section Hy. 30.06(6)(e) are amended to read:

(e) During any transportation in the course of which there is a violation of any of the conditions specified by the terms of the permit, the permittee shall be subject to, and the permit shall not protect him from the provisions of the statutes relating to motor vehicle equipment, size, and weight. False information given in the application or failure to comply with the conditions of the permit shall be just cause for the summary suspension or revocation, upon notice in writing, of any or all permits held by said permittee and the withholding of permits on his applications.

Section Hy. 30.06(6)(3) is repealed.

The first two sentences of Section Hy. 30.08(6)(d) are amended to read:

(d) During any transportation in the course of which there is a violation of any of the conditions specified by the terms of the permit, the permittee shall be subject to, and the permit shall not protect him from the provisions of the statutes relating to motor vehicle equipment, size, and weight. False information given in the application or failure to comply with the conditions of the permit shall be just cause for the summary suspension or revocation, upon notice in writing, of any or all permits held by said permittee and the withholding of permits on his applications.

Section Ky. 30.08(6)(i) is created to read: ✓

(i) The holder of an industrial interplant permit shall be subject to the provisions of all pertinent statutes and valid ordinances, rules, and regulations by any state agency or subdivision of the state except as to such provisions as are modified by the conditions of the permit. The permittee shall comply with all statutory provisions and regulations as to permits, licensing, and motor vehicle equipment.

Section Ky. 30.10(6)(d) is amended to read: ✓

(d) The holder of a pole transportation permit shall be subject to the provisions of all pertinent statutes and valid ordinances, rules, and regulations by any state agency or subdivision of the state except as to such provisions as are modified by the conditions of the permit. The permittee shall comply with all statutory provisions and regulations as to permits, licensing, and motor vehicle equipment.

The first two sentences of Section Ky. 30.10(6)(e) are amended to read: ✓

(e) During any transportation in the course of which there is a violation of any of the conditions specified by the terms of the permit, the permittee shall be subject to, and the permit shall not protect him from the provisions of the statutes relating to motor vehicle equipment, size, and weight. False information given in the application or failure to comply with the conditions of the permit shall be just cause for the summary suspension or revocation, upon notice in writing, of any or all permits held by said permittee and the withholding of permits on his applications.

Section Ky. 30.12(6)(d) is amended to read: ✓

(d) The holder of a trailer train permit shall be subject to the provisions of all pertinent statutes and valid ordinances, rules and regulations by any state agency or subdivision of the state except as to such provisions as are modified by the conditions of the permit. The permittee shall comply with all statutory provisions and regulations as to permits, licensing, and motor vehicle equipment.

The first two sentences of Section Ky. 30.12(6)(e) are amended to read: ✓

(e) During any transportation in the course of which there is a violation of any of the conditions specified by the terms of the permit, the permittee shall be subject to, and the permit shall not protect him from the provisions of the statutes relating to motor vehicle equipment, size, and weight. False information given in the application or failure to comply with the conditions of the permit shall be just cause for the summary suspension or revocation, upon notice in writing, of any or all permits held by said permittee and the withholding of permits on his applications.

The first two sentences of Section Ky. 30.14(6)(d) are amended to read: ✓

(d) During any transportation in the course of which there is a violation of any of the conditions specified by the terms of the permit, the permittee shall be subject to, and the permit shall not protect him from the provisions of the statutes relating to motor vehicle equipment, size, and weight. False information given in the application or failure to comply with the conditions of the permit shall be just cause for the summary suspension or revocation, upon notice in writing, of any or all permits held by said permittee and the withholding of permits on his applications.

Section Ry. 30.14(6)(m) is created to read:

(m) The holders of these permit shall be subject to the provisions of all pertinent statutes and valid ordinances, rules and regulations by any state agency or subdivision of the state except as to such provisions as are modified by the conditions of the permit.
