CERTIFIED COPY OF A-V 4.05 (6) a, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, i has been repealed and recreated to read:

A-V 4.05 (6) (a) Class instruction Since much of the class instruction in agriculture must be given in laboratories either in school or on farms, schedules shall be arranged to provide extended time for instruction. The needs for such time include field trips on all phases of instruction, and school laboratory work such as soil testing, seed treating and testing, milk testing, farm machinery repair, building and appliance construction and work of a similar nature. Class periods with 50 or more minutes of actual class instruction five days a week or 70 or more minutes of actual class instruction four days a week will be approved. Longer periods of instruction are desirable for the most effective functioning of the program. Conference periods should also be provided so that the instructor may meet with groups of his students for such things as FFA or Junior Dairymen's Association meetings, the preparation of demonstrations or similar activities. FFA chapter meetings should preferably be included in the school program either in activity periods or by a combination of classes.
