Pursuant to authority vested in the Industrial Commission by Section 101.10(7) Wisconsin Statutes, the Industrial Commission on September 14, 1960 adopted new order Ind 80.29 Value of Room and Meals.

IND 80.29 VALUE OF ROOM OR MEALS. In determining an employe's wages from any employer under Chapter 102, Wisconsin Statutes, any lodging or meals furnished as part of the employe's pay shall, unless a different specific showing is made, depend on his work-place and be valued as follows:

(a) As to any city or village with a population of 1,000 or more the value of a room shall be $6.75 per week or 90 cents per day; and the value of meals shall be $13.50 per week or 65 cents per meal.

(b) Elsewhere the value of a room shall be $6.00 per week or 85 cents per day; and the value of meals shall be $12.00 per week or 60 cents per meal.

(c) To value room and meals hereunder, there shall be included within a city or village any community or isolated establishment which is outside the territorial limits but within the industrial or commercial area of the city or village, and its population shall be determined from the latest available Federal Census figures.

The new orders shall take effect on the first day of the month following their publication in the administrative code as provided in Section 227.
