ORDER OF THE WISCONSIN REGISTRATION BOARD OF ARCHITECTS AND PROFESSIONAL ENGINEERS ADOPTING, AMENDING OR REPEALING RULES

Pursuant to authority vested in the Wisconsin Registration Board of Architects and Professional Engineers by sections 101.31 and 101.315, Wis. Stats., the Wisconsin Registration Board of Architects and Professional Engineers hereby repeals, amends, and adopts rules as follows:

Section A-E 1.15 (3) of the WISCONSIN ADMINISTRATIVE CODE is repealed and repealed to read:

(3) RETAKE. An applicant who upon taking any portion of the Board's Architectural, Engineering, or Land Surveying Examinations for the first time fails a portion or all of that examination may upon request and payment of the re-examination fee re-take all of it, or the portions of it failed, at any 3 of the 6 semi-annual examinations next following the first examination written.
If the applicant fails to complete passing the entire examination during any 3 of the 6 semi-annual examinations next following the first examination written,
the applicant shall:

- (a) be ineligible to take further examinations for a period of at least two years;
- (b) revert to the status of a new applicant and be required to take all portions of the examination unless otherwise approved in advance by the Board;
- (c) be required to furnish proof that since his last failure he has further prepared himself by educational work or practical experience before being admitted to additional examinations."

Section A-E 1.15 (5) (e) 3. of the WISCONSIN ADMINISTRATIVE CODE is amended to read:

"3. If an applicant fails in Parts I or II of Examination A or B, he may at the discretion of the board be not required to retake the parts he has passed, or he may be required to retake the entire examinations."

The rules, amendments, and repeals contained herein shall take effect on March 1, 1961, pursuant to authority granted by section 227.026 (1), Wis.
Stats.
