STATE CONSERVATION COMMISSION OF WISCONSIN

IN THE MATTER OF creating section'
WCD 19.10 of the Wisconsin
Administrative Code relating to bird-banding permits -----

Order No. M-986

ORDER OF THE STATE CONSERVATION COMMISSION OF WISCONSIN
ADOPTING, AMENDING OR REPEALING RULES

Pursuant to the authority vested in the State Conservation Commission of Wisconsin by section 23.09 (7), Wis. Stats., the said State Conservation Commission of Wisconsin hereby adopts rules as follows:

Section WCD 19.10 of the Wisconsin Administrative Code is created to read:

WCD 19.10 Bird-banding permits. (1) The state conservation commission may issue bird-banding permits free of charge to qualified natural persons as hereinafter provided. Such permit authorizes the permittee to capture alive and band for scientific purposes only the birds specified in the permit subject to the conditions and limitations specified in the permit and the rules of the commission. The permittee may possess the birds only for such a period of time as may be necessary to securely band and attend to collateral functions such as weighing, measuring, sexing and aging.

(2) Applications for bird-banding permits shall be made on forms prepared and furnished by the conservation commission and shall show:

(a) The name, address and description of the applicant.

(b) The purposes for which the permit will be used.

(c) Such other information as the commission shall deem reasonable.

(3) Upon receipt of such application the commission shall investigate the same. When satisfied that the applicant is engaged in a bona fide research program leading to increased, useful scientific knowledge the commission may in its discretion issue a bird-banding permit to the applicant.

(4) Such permit shall state:

(a) The name, address and description of the permittee.

(b) The date of issue.

(c) The period of time during which the permit is effective.

(d) The purposes for which it is issued.

(e) The signature of the permittee.

(f) Such other conditions and limitations as the commission shall deem reasonable.

(5) Bird-banding permits are not transferable and may be revoked at any time by the commission.

(6) Record keeping and annual reports. The permittee shall keep current records of all transactions by him under such permit, which records shall be made available for inspection at all reasonable hours by the conservation commission or its agents, and a report of operations based on this record shall be filed annually with the said commission on or before January 31 of each year. Annual reports shall be on forms prepared and furnished by the conservation commission and shall show:

(a) Date federal report was submitted.

(b) Number of game birds and nongame birds banded.

(c) Name and band number of all birds banded with nonfederal bands.

(d) Any other information deemed reasonable by the commission.

(7) The permit must be carried upon the person of the permittee when exercising any privileges thereunder.

(8) All traps used in banding operations shall bear a label showing the name and address of the permittee and number of the permit, or the trapping area must be adequately posted with signs bearing the name and address of the permittee and his permit number.

(9) The permit of any person convicted of a violation of any law or rule regulating the taking, possession, or use of wild animals shall be forfeited and revoked in addition to all other penalties, and any person so convicted shall not be eligible for a permit under this section for the period of one year following the date of such conviction.

This section is adopted pursuant to section 23.09 (7), Wis. Stats.

The rules herein contained shall take effect on September 1, 1964.
