TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, GREETINGS:

I, Stephen J. Reilly, Executive Secretary of the Department of Industry, Labor and Human Relations, and custodian of the official records of said Department, do hereby certify that the attached rules to Wisconsin Administrative Code Ind 8.63 (4) were adopted by the Department of Industry, Labor and Human Relations on November 1, 1967.

I further certify that said copy has been compared by me with the original on file in this Department and that the same is a true copy thereof and of the whole of such original.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the official seal of the department at the Capitol, in the city of Madison, this 1st day of November, A. D., 1967.

Executive Secretary

ORDER OF THE
DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRY, LABOR AND HUMAN RELATIONS

Pursuant to authority vested in the Department of Industry, Labor and Human Relations by section 101.01 to 101.29, Wis. Stats., the Department of Industry, Labor and Human Relations hereby recreates and adopts rules as follows:

Section Ind 8.63 (4) of the Wisconsin Administrative Code is adopted to read:

(4) AUTOMATIC DISPENSING UNITS. Underwriter's laboratories approved special dispensing devices such as, but not limited to, money operated, card operated, and remote preset types are permitted at service stations, provided that dispensing of Class I liquids is under the observation of an authorized attendant at all times and provided that emergency controls are installed at a location acceptable to the Department of Industry, Labor and Human Relations. Instructions for operation of dispensing devices shall be conspicuously posted.

(a) The observation and control of the special dispensing devices shall be the attendant's primary function and any secondary duties shall not be such as to introduce distraction from the primary function. The attendant shall be regularly instructed in all appropriate regulations pertaining to dispensing, use of approved containers, and smoking restrictions.

The rules as created shall become effective on the first day of the month following publication in the Wisconsin Administrative Code as provided in Section 227.
