ORDER OF THE WATCHMAKING EXAMINING BOARD
ADOPTING, AMENDING OR REPEALING

Pursuant to authority vested in the Watchmaking Examining Board by Section 227.014(2), Wis. Stats., the Examining Board hereby repeals, adopts and amends rules as follows:

Section Watch 1.01 of the Wis. Adm. Code is repealed and recreated to read:

Watch 1.01 DEFINITIONS. As used in these rules, "statute" refers to chapter 454, Wis. Stats., "board" means the watchmaking examining board, and "watch" and "portable time piece" interchangeably mean any time keeping device which is normally worn on or about the body.

Section Watch 1.03 of the Wis. Adm. Code is repealed.

Section Watch 1.04 of the Wis. Adm. Code is repealed and recreated to read:

Watch 1.04 PETITION FOR RULE CHANGE. Any individual or group interested in a change, deletion or extension of any administrative rule may petition for a hearing. A petition shall be submitted to the chairman of the board and shall specify with particularity the change or changes requested. Upon receipt of a petition requesting amendment, repeal, or extension of an administrative rule, the chairman shall upon the advice and consent of the board, consider, investigate or cause to be investigated the request set forth in the petition. A public hearing shall be held, and interested individuals shall be provided at least 10 days notice of the date, time and place of the hearing. Notice shall be transmitted by certified mail.

Section Watch 1.05 of the Wis. Adm. Code is repealed and recreated to read:

Watch 1.05 DECLARATORY RULING. Any individual or group desiring a declaratory ruling as to the applicability of any of the administrative rules or the statutory prerogatives of the board shall submit a petition to the board in writing setting forth the pertinent facts and the need for the requested ruling. A public hearing shall be held and the secretary shall provide all interested individuals at least 10 days notice of the date and place for said hearing.

Section Watch 1.06 of the Wis. Adm. Code is repealed and recreated to read:

Watch 1.06 PREHEARING. In matters pertaining to issues involving board consideration, any party may appear before the board at the time and place specified for the purpose of clarifying, simplifying, or defining the issues to be presented. A written record of such hearings shall be kept and shall become part of the official record.

Section Watch 1.10 of the Wis. Adm. Code is repealed and recreated to read:

Watch 1.10 EXAMINATION. Each examinee will be furnished a pocket watch with the hair spring distorted, and escapement out of adjustment. Each examinee shall fit a balance staff, to be furnished by the board, true a hair spring, adjust the escapement and make all necessary repairs and adjustments as the board shall determine. Each examinee shall construct a stem to fit a wrist watch (without sample) and turn a portion of the balance staff to required dimensions. Each examinee shall complete a written examination pertaining to the theory of construction and repair of various types of portable time pieces.

Section Watch 1.16 of the Wis. Adm. Code is repealed and recreated to read:

Watch 1.16 REPLACING LOST CERTIFICATE. Upon proof, satisfactory to the board that a certificate has been lost or destroyed, the board may issue a new certificate upon the payment of $2.50.

Section Watch 1.17 of the Wis. Adm. Code is repealed.

Section Watch 1.18 of the Wis. Adm. Code is repealed and recreated to read:

Watch 1.18 RECIPROCITY. In granting reciprocity under section 454.06(2), Wis. Stats., the following rules shall govern: (1) Applicants shall have received a certificate by passing a regularly conducted examination and not by exemption, and shall have been registered in and engaged in watchmaking for a period of not less than two years. (2) Standards of examination established in applicant's state, shall be equivalent to sections Watch 1.08, Watch 1.10, and Watch 1.11.

Section Watch 1.19 of the Wis. Adm. Code is repealed and recreated to read:

Watch 1.19 MILITARY OR DEFENSE SERVICE. No certificate of registration will be revoked while the holder thereof is an active member of the military forces of the United States, provided that such holder is not then engaged in the practice of watchmaking in this state. Upon the return of the holder to the practice of watchmaking, his certificate may be renewed upon payment of the annual licensing fee.

Section Watch 1.20 of the Wis. Adm. Code is amended to read:

Watch 1.20 UNETHICAL CONDUCT. "Unethical conduct" as used in sections 454.01 to 454.09, Wis. Stats., includes and means any conduct of a character likely to mislead, deceive or defraud the public and specifically includes, without limitation because of enumeration; advertising in which untruthful or misleading statements are made; ~~advertising-of-prices-of-watch-repairing-advertising-or-giving-watch-crystals,-watch-parts,-attachments-or-any-article-gratis-or-at-less-than-cost;-performance-of-any-service-in-pursuance-of-such-advertising;~~ loaning of a certificate of registration to any person; failure to display the certificate of registration conspicuously at all times; representing that a watch has been cleaned although its major parts have not been cleaned and dirt and old lubricant has not been completely removed from the train wheels, pivots, bearings, jewels and other parts; performance of any work upon a watch in an unworkmanlike or unskilled manner; representing that certain services or replacement parts are necessary or have been or will be used in the repair of a watch although such services or replacement parts are not necessary or have not been used in such repairs; employing, directly or indirectly, any unregistered person to perform any watchmaking function; ~~or noncompliance, within 30 days, with the directive given in a written notice from the board to terminate employment of or with any person who is violating any of the provisions of sections 454.01 to 454.09, Wis. Stats., or rules established in accordance therewith.~~
