(10) The following transactions are exempted under s. 551.23 (18), Stats., without limiting the commissioner's authority thereunder:

(a) Any isolated issuer transaction relating to redeemable securities of an investment company registered under the investment company act of 1940, effected through a licensed broker-dealer pursuant to an unsolicited order or offer to purchase, provided that the broker-dealer obtains from the purchaser a written acknowledgment that the purchase was unsolicited or the confirmation delivered to the purchaser or a memorandum delivered in connection therewith confirms that the purchase was unsolicited by the broker-dealer or any agent of the broker-dealer. A transaction is presumed to be "isolated" if it is one of not more than 3 such transactions during the prior 12 months.

(b) Any issuance of securities by a corporation in a transaction meeting the requirements of section 368 (a) (1) (B) of the internal revenue code, if the issuer files with the commissioner prior to the offering the reorganization agreement and plan pursuant to which the securities are proposed to be issued and additional information as the commissioner may require, and the commissioner does not by order disallow the exemption within 10 days from the date of filing.

(f) Any offer or sale of securities to the employees or agents of the issuer or its subsidiaries pursuant to a stock option plan, provided there is filed with the commissioner a notice consisting of a complete description of the plan including any advertising to be published, circulated or used, and the commissioner by order exempts the plan. The commissioner may find the order inappropriate for the protection of investors unless:

1. The plan extends for no longer than 10 years;
2. The total amount of options and the exercise price meet the requirements of s. SEC 3.03 (4) and (5);
3. The issuer files an undertaking to deliver to all participating employees copies of the issuer's annual financial statements;

Before the securities referred to in subd. 1. may legally be sold, no customer funds are received and no customer signs any subscription agreement or similar document relating to the securities offered other than a tentative reservation of securities that is not binding on the subscriber until ratified by the subscriber after the securities may legally be sold.

(h) Any transaction, in other than the initial public offering, involving any government security, other than a revenue obligation and other than a security issued or guaranteed by the United States, or any agency or corporate instrumentality of the United States, where the government security is of investment quality rating as determined by the office of the commissioner of banking for the state of Wisconsin or by the comptroller of the cubroker-dealerency by virtue of credit worthiness, or any transaction involving any government security dated prior to the effective date of this paragraph.

5. An Information Summary containing at least the following information shall be provided by the issuer to each offeree at the time of the offering:

a. Disclosure of the specific purposes for use of the funds raised from the sale of the debt securities;

b. A statement that the decision of an offeree whether or not to purchase or to agree to any renewal will not have any effect upon that offeree's advancement opportunities, raises or other benefits, nor will impact on the offeree's continued employment or job duties;

c. A representation that the issuer is not contemplating, and is not the subject of, any proposed merger, sale of assets or control of the issuer, receivership or bankruptcy, that it does not have current financial obligations that it is unable to meet, and that it has not been refused credit by any lending institution for the purposes for which the proceeds from sale or renewal of the debt securities will be used; and

d. Financial statements for the issuer's three previous fiscal years, or the duration of the issuer's existence, whichever is less, that shall be either audited or, if unaudited, accompanied by the issuer's federal income tax return with supporting schedules for the corresponding years;
