the amount required to provide the necessities of life for that person and those dependent on that person, during the pendency of the case.

SPD 3.035 Consideration of need for expert services. If it appears probable at the time the indigency determination is made that it will be necessary to retain expert assistance in a case, the anticipated cost of retaining that assistance shall be added to the "anticipated cost of retaining counsel" under SPD 3.02.

History: Cr. Register, August, 1978, No. 272, eff. 9-1-78; am. (1), r. (2), Register, November, 1984, No. 347, eff. 12-1-84.

SPD 3.038 Calculation of indigency. A person's available assets as determined under s. SPD 3.03 shall be compared to the anticipated cost of retaining counsel as specified under s. SPD 3.02 as follows:

(1) If the available assets are less than or equal to $100, the person is indigent.

(2) If the available assets are greater than $100, but less than or equal to the anticipated cost of retaining counsel, the person is partially indigent.

(3) If the available assets are greater than the anticipated cost of retaining counsel, the person is not indigent.

History: Cr. Register, April, 1990, No. 412, eff. 5-1-90.

SPD 3.04 Partial indigency. (1) If the person has insufficient assets to retain counsel, the state public defender shall provide counsel under s. 977.08, Stats., and the court or the state public defender may require the person to make payments to the state in partial payment of legal fees, at the prevailing state public defender hourly rate. The payments shall be equivalent to the full amount of available assets, except payments may not exceed the actual value of the legal services as determined in s. SPD 3.02 (1).

(2) The state public defender may reduce the payments for legal fees under this section if it appears, by sworn statement of the person, that the person's financial status has sufficiently changed to warrant reduction in the payments or that the interests of justice require such reduction.

History: Cr. Register, August, 1978, No. 272, eff. 9-1-78; am. (1) and r. (2), Register, November, 1984, No. 347, eff. 12-1-84; am. (1), Register, April, 1990, No. 412, eff. 5-1-90.

SPD 3.05 Sworn statement. All persons provided with publicly compensated counsel shall be required to give a sworn statement of their assets, liabilities, and expenses.

(2) The state public defender and county designee shall retain for 5 years all indigency evaluations whether or not a person was determined to be indigent and the county designee shall forward to the state public defender on a monthly basis copies of all indigency evaluations.

At the conclusion of the action, the statement of assets, liabilities, and expenses shall be placed in the court file upon the request of anyone, unless release is prohibited by court order under sub. (4) (b).

(2) Each prospective client shall be given the following information at the commencement of the eligibility interview:

(a) The financial information provided during the interview will be recorded in the statement of assets, liabilities, and expenses and shall be as complete and accurate as possible, since the prospective client will be required to swear to the accuracy of the statement at the conclusion of the interview; and

(b) A material misrepresentation about the prospective client's financial condition that is incorporated into the statement and sworn to by the prospective client may be the basis for prosecution for the felony crime of false swearing.

(3) During the pendency of the action, when a prospective client has been found eligible for representation, questions of eligibility shall be resolved pursuant to s. 977.07 (3), Stats.

(4) Upon the conclusion of the action, a written request for release of the statement of assets, liabilities, and expenses may be made to the local representative of the state public defender for the county in which the action took place. The client's attorney and the state public defender regional supervisor for the county in which the action took place shall review and respond to each request within 10 business days in the following manner:

(a) Unless they believe that the release of the statement will violate the legal rights of the client or the ethical obligations of counsel, the statement shall be filed with the clerk of courts.

(b) If they believe that the release of the statement will violate the legal rights of the client or the ethical obligations of counsel, they shall file a motion in the court in which the action was heard for an order prohibiting the release of the statement. If the motion is granted, a sealed copy of the statement shall be filed with the clerk of courts. If the motion is denied, the statement shall be filed with the clerk of courts. The statement shall remain sealed during the course of any appeal on the motion.

(c) The local representative shall promptly notify the party requesting release of the statement of the action taken.
