IN THE MATTER OF a rule to repeal MVD14 and create Trans 104, Wisconsin Administrative Code, relating to the examination of applicants for an operator's license.

ORDER ADOPTING RULERECEIVEDAnalysis Prepared by the Wisconsin Department of Transportation

NOV 12 1990

STATUTORY AUTHORITY: ss. 85.16(1) and 343.02, Stats.

Revisor of Statutes
Bureau

STATUTES INTERPRETED: ss. 343.06(1)(e), 343.12, 343.135, 343.16, 343.20, 343.25, and 343.32, Stats.

This rule repeals Chapter MVD 14 and creates Chapter Trans 104 to establish by rule the policies and procedures of the Department of Transportation (department) for examination of applicants for an operator's license. The rule includes the provisions for examining persons for the Commercial Driver License as provided in 1989 Wisconsin Act 105. The vision and hearing requirements listed in Chapter MVD 14 are now included in Chapter Trans 103, which is already in effect. Statutory interpretations and policies included in the rule are:

1. Section Trans 104.01 designates the purpose, scope, and authority for adoption of the rule.

2. Section Trans 104.02 establishes definitions for terms used in the chapter.

3. Section Trans 104.03 establishes consistent standards for all knowledge and highway sign tests, including the passing percentage and waiting periods between tests when unsuccessful. The passing grade was raised from the 75% under Chapter MVD 14 to 80% to match the federal requirements in 49 CFR 383.110 to 383.135 for the Commercial Driver License. The rule extends this scoring standard to the knowledge tests for all classifications instead of prescribing different passing grades for each classification test.

In Chapter MVD 14, there is no allowance for any error on the highway sign test. The rule extends the 80% passing grade to that test also.

The rule details the test information that is required by statute and specifies that all persons making their first application for an operator's license are required to take a general knowledge test. It describes the special knowledge tests required for each license classification and endorsement for a Commercial Driver License and specifies knowledge tests required for special restricted and juvenile restricted licenses and a license that authorizes motorcycle operation that are required by statute but were not included in Chapter MVD 14.

The rule sets forth the department's policy to accommodate persons with special needs. The rule also specifies that oral tests may not be administered to a person applying for a school bus or hazardous materials endorsement.

4. Section Trans 104.04 provides for the immediate disqualification for anyone detected using unauthorized assistance during a knowledge test and establishes the time period before another test may be taken. This is a new provision that codifies existing department practice.

5. Section Trans 104.05 specifies the qualifications for persons conducting driving skills tests, including department employees and third party examiners.

6. Section Trans 104.06 outlines the vehicle safety inspection requirements for all classes of vehicles including commercial motor vehicles, non-commercial vehicles and motorcycles, and specifies when a driving skills test shall be denied for equipment defects. This section also details the requirements for the pre-trip and air brake inspection tests for the commercial motor vehicle operator. It also specifies the pass-fail percentage and waiting period for retaking the pre-trip inspection and air brake tests when the applicant is unsuccessful.

7. Section Trans 104.07 specifies the skills or maneuvers included in the driving skills test for each license classification and endorsement. No skills were eliminated from those specified in Chapter MVD 14. Special requirements specified in 49 CFR 383.113 for the Commercial Driver License are included. The rule also eliminates an outdated motorcycle skills test and specifies the method of conducting tests for restricted area licensing. The rule also extends the conditions under which a skills test may be cancelled to the skills tests for all vehicle types.

Section Trans 104.07 also provides that persons who have never been licensed in Wisconsin or any other jurisdiction and who are reinstating their operating privileges are to obtain an instruction permit and hold the permit seven days before attempting a skills test. It also specifies the period of time other persons must hold a permit before attempting a skills test, and under what conditions a skills test may be conducted for a person with an expired permit. A person may not take a skills test for a commercial driver license without having a valid instruction permit that authorizes operation of commercial motor vehicles.

8. Section Trans 104.08 specifies the type of driving evaluation to be used to determine if a person adequately compensates for a medical or physical condition or functional impairment. Such an evaluation consists of only those skills and traffic situations needed to evaluate the person's individual condition. This was not previously specified in Chapter MVD 14, but reflects department practice.

9. Section Trans 104.09 specifies the system used for scoring the driving skills test or evaluation and establishes a passing grade of 80% for all vehicle types and classifications requiring skills tests. It specifies reasons, such as committing a moving traffic violation during the skills test, for which a person would fail the test, regardless of the total point accumulation.

10. Section Trans 104.10 establishes the standards for waiting periods between driving skills tests based on the person's score when a person fails a skills test. An exception limited to the phase-in period for the Commercial Driver License is included.

11. Section Trans 104.11 establishes the licensing tests required of people previously licensed in another jurisdiction and extends the reciprocity for Commercial Driver License classifications and endorsements to all vehicle classifications.

12. Section Trans 104.12 establishes the tests for persons renewing a school bus endorsement or hazardous material endorsement or renewing a special restricted license. It also specifies the requirement for retesting persons with an operator's license expired more than four years.

13. The rule clarifies the department's authority to reexamine and require a person to take all or part of the tests specified for any license classification or endorsement and provides that a person's operating privilege shall be cancelled for refusing or failing to submit to an examination. The rule also authorizes the department to waive a test when the test is conducted by an approved alternate representative and establishes the period of time the department will honor test results for those tests a person takes before an actual license is issued.

Regulatory Flexibility Analysis. The rule has no anticipated impact on small businesses.

Fiscal Estimate. No fiscal impact is anticipated from the promulgation of this rule.

(b) Less than 70%: 2-week practice period.

(2) The first day of the practice period under sub. (1) starts on the day of the unsuccessful test.

(3) If an applicant fails the skills test solely as a result of committing a moving traffic violation during the skills test, the practice period may be reduced to one day.

(4) Notwithstanding sub. (1), prior to April 1, 1992, a person applying for a commercial driver license who does not qualify for the driving examination waiver under s. 343.03(8)(b), Stats., and fails the skills test may retake the test no sooner than the next day following the failed test.

Trans 104.11 TESTING PERSONS PREVIOUSLY LICENSED IN ANOTHER JURISDICTION. (1) A person who was previously licensed in another jurisdiction and who applies for an operator's license may be required to satisfactorily complete all appropriate tests for the vehicle classifications or endorsements being requested.

(b) A valid commercial driver license with endorsements or such a license that is expired four years or less, issued by another jurisdiction.

(5) A person seeking to upgrade license classifications or endorsements shall be required to satisfactorily complete the appropriate knowledge and skills tests.

(6) In addition to the medical standards established by the department under s. 343.12(2)(g), Stats., any person seeking a school bus endorsement shall be required to satisfactorily complete the school bus knowledge and skills tests to qualify for the endorsement.

Trans 104.12 RENEWAL TESTING. (1) Any person seeking to renew a school bus endorsement shall undergo a school bus knowledge test, vision and hearing screening, highway sign test and an abbreviated skills test in a school bus at each renewal.

(a) An abbreviated driving skills test includes at least the following:

1. Pre-trip inspection.
2. Simulated passenger pickup and discharge.
3. Railroad crossing stop.

(b) The components of the skills test shall be scored as satisfactory or unsatisfactory. If a driver commits a moving traffic violation or dangerous act in conjunction with any driving skill, the skills test shall be scored as unsatisfactory.

(c) If a person with a school bus endorsement fails the abbreviated renewal test, a complete driving skills test shall be required. This test may be taken no sooner than the next day following the failed test.

(d) Any person with a school bus endorsement whose license does not have an air brake restriction shall not be required to retake the air brake tests at renewal.

(2) Persons who are 70 years of age or older and hold a school bus endorsement shall demonstrate their continuing ability to meet the licensing requirements under sub. (1) at 2-year intervals and file a medical certification yearly.

Trans 104.03, 104.06 and 104.07.

Trans 104.13 RE-EXAMINATION. (1) Whenever the department has good cause to believe that a licensed operator is not qualified to hold a license, the department may require the person to take a re-examination, including all or part of the tests specified in ss. Trans 104.03, 104.06 and 104.07.

(2) If a skills test is required, the department shall determine the representative vehicle in which the person will be re-examined. Depending on the classification or endorsement a person holds, more than one skills test may be required.

Trans 104.14 CANCELLATION. Except as provided in s. 343.265, Stats., the department shall cancel a person's license if the person has been requested by the department to submit to an examination and fails or refuses to do so.

Trans 104.15 DEPARTMENT WAIVERS OF TESTS. (1) The department may waive the knowledge test requirements for a classification "D" license if the applicant satisfactorily completes the knowledge tests administered and certified in an approved driver education program as provided in s. 343.16(1)(a)3, Stats.

(2) The department may waive the driving skills tests for commercial driver license classifications or endorsements if the applicant shows proof of satisfactory completion of the appropriate skills tests conducted by an authorized third party tester, or prior to April 1, 1992, meets the requirements for waiver specified in s. 343.03(8)(b), Stats.

Trans 104.16 EXPIRATION OF KNOWLEDGE OR SKILL TESTS RESULTS.

The department shall honor test results for those commercial driver license tests conducted by the department or tests waived under s. Trans. 104.15 (2) for one year from the date of the test or waiver. The results of commercial driver license tests conducted prior to April 1, 1991, shall be valid until April 1, 1992.
