OF THE STATE OF WISCONSIN DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE,
TRADE AND CONSUMER PROTECTION

The state of Wisconsin department of agriculture, trade and consumer protection hereby adopts the following order to repeal ch. Ag 3, relating to the registration of warehouses in the city of Superior.

Analysis Prepared by the Department of Agriculture,
Trade and Consumer Protection

Statutory Authority: ss. 93.07(1) and 227.11(2), Stats.

Statutes Interpreted: Repeal of ch. 126, Stats.

This rule repeals ch. Ag 3, Wis. Adm. Code, relating to the registration of grain warehouses in the city of Superior. Chapter Ag 3 was originally adopted under ch. 126, Stats., which was repealed by 1989 Wis. Act 282.

At one time, ch. 126, Stats., governed the operation of grain warehouses in the city of Superior. Grain warehouses in other parts of the state could, by registering with the department, voluntarily submit to inspection and regulation under ch. 126, Stats. Chapter Ag 3 spelled out requirements for the voluntary registration of grain warehouses, and for their regulation under ch. 126, Stats.

Chapter 126, Stats., became obsolete after the federal grain standards act (7 USC 71 et seq.) was enacted in 1976, and after the Wisconsin grain dealer and warehouse security act, ch. 127, Stats., was enacted in 1979. At the present time, state grain inspection at the port of Superior is performed under contract with the U.S. department of agriculture, pursuant to s. 93.06(1m), Stats., and the federal grain standards act. Grain warehouse security and bonding requirements are covered, on a comprehensive statewide basis, by ch. 127, Stats. Grain transactions formerly regulated by ch. 126, Stats., are also regulated by the Uniform Commercial Code, chs. 401 to 409, Stats.

Since ch. 126, Stats., has now been repealed, there is no longer any basis or need for ch. Ag 3. This rule therefore repeals ch. Ag 3.

SECTION 1. Chapter Ag 3 is repealed.

SECTION 2. The repeal of ch. Ag 3 by this order takes effect on the first day of the month following publication in the Wisconsin administrative register, as provided in s. 227.22(2)(intro.), Stats.

Dated this 10th day of June, 1990.
