The record may be retained by computer if a printed copy of the record can be prepared immediately upon request. In the event a record has been preserved for one year as required under this subsection, a microfilm copy may be substituted for the remainder of the required period. Compliance with the requirements of the U.S. securities and exchange commission concerning preservation and microfilming of records, or other means of retention of records, is deemed compliance with this subsection.

(b) The customer account-related records in sub. (1) (a), (c), (f) to (m), (p), (r) and (s) may be separately maintained at a designated office permitted by the commissioner, provided the records are immediately accessible to the designated supervisor.

(1) (f), (i), (j), (k), and (3) (c) and (d). Additionally, each such branch office shall prepare and keep current records described in sub. (1) (p), but only of advertising materials either generated from the branch office or mailed by or placed in media by the branch office.

(4) The records required in sub. (3) shall be preserved at the branch office for a period of not less than 3 years, the first 2 years in an easily accessible place, except that customer new account forms shall be preserved for a period of not less than 3 years after the closing of the account. The record may be retained by computer if a printed copy of the record can be prepared immediately upon request. In the event a record has been preserved for one year as required under this subsection, a microfilm copy may be substituted for the remainder of the required period.

(5) This section does not require a licensed broker-dealer to make and keep such records of transactions cleared for the licensee by another broker-dealer as are customarily made and kept by the clearing broker-dealer.

(6) The commissioner may by order exempt any broker-dealer from all or part of the requirements of this section, either unconditionally or upon specified conditions, if by reason of the special nature of its business, the commissioner finds the issuance of the order is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

SEC 4.05 Rules of conduct. (1) (a) Except as provided in pars. (b) and (c), each broker-dealer shall give or send to the customer a written confirmation, promptly after execution of, and before completion of, each transaction. The confirmation shall set forth the information prescribed in rule 10b-10 of the securities and exchange act of 1934 and whether the transaction was unsolicited.

(b) A broker-dealer engaged solely in the offer and sale of securities issued by open-end investment companies, face amount certificate companies or unit investment trusts registered under the investment company act of 1940 is not required to give or send a written confirmation under par. (a), provided that the issuer gives or sends a written confirmation directly to the customer for the transaction.

(c) A broker-dealer engaged solely in the offer and sale of interests in direct participation programs is not required to give or send a written confirmation under par. (a), provided that a customer subscribing to purchase an interest in a direct participation program is provided immediately upon subscription with a copy of the subscription agreement entered into and the issuer gives or sends a written confirmation directly to the customer for the transaction.

(2) Each broker-dealer shall establish and keep current a set of written supervisory procedures and a system for applying such procedures, which may be reasonably expected to prevent and detect any violations of ch. 551, Stats., and rules and orders thereunder. The procedures shall include the designation, by name or title, of a number of supervisory employees reasonable in relation to the number of its licensed agents, offices and transactions in this state. A complete set of the procedures and system for applying them shall be kept and maintained at every branch office.

(3) A broker-dealer shall not enter any contract with a customer if the contract contains any condition, stipulation or provision binding the customer to waive any rights under ch. 551, Stats., or any rule or order thereunder. Any such condition, stipulation or provision is void.

(4) No broker-dealer shall permit or effect a withdrawal of any part of its net worth, including subordinated indebtedness, whether by redemption, retirement, repurchase, repayment or otherwise, that would cause its net capital or its aggregate indebtedness to violate s. SEC 4.02 (1) or (2), without prior written approval of the commissioner.

(5) Each broker-dealer shall provide each customer with a conformed copy of all contracts or agreements between the broker-dealer and the customer, and a copy of the customer information form prescribed under s. SEC 4.03 (1) (k), not later than 20 days after the customer's account is first established on the books and records of the broker-dealer. A copy of any material amendment to a customer's contract, agreement or customer information form shall be provided to the customer within 20 days from the date of the material amendment. In this subsection, a material amendment is presumed to exist, without limitation, in the event the broker-dealer receives from the customer and records on the customer information form, changes to the customer's annual income, net worth, investment objectives or other changes to information affecting the agent's ability to make suitable recommendations for the customer as required under s. SEC 4.06 (1) (c).

(6) Every licensed broker-dealer shall employ at least one person designated in writing to the commissioner to act in a supervisory capacity who is licensed as a securities agent in this state and has satisfied the supervisory examination requirement in s. SEC 4.01 (5) and has immediate access to the records maintained pursuant to s. SEC 4.03 (1). If a licensed broker-dealer is not in compliance with the requirements of this subsection, it has 45 days from the first date of non-compliance to meet the requirements of this subsection.

(7) Every broker-dealer whose principal office is located in this state, other than a broker-dealer engaged solely in the offer and sale of either interests in direct participation programs or securities issued by open-end investment companies, face amount certificate companies or unit investment trusts registered under the investment company act of 1940, shall have at least one licensed person employed on a full-time basis at its principal office.

(8) No broker-dealer may associate with a bank, savings institution, trust company, savings and loan association or credit union by contract, agreement or other means for the purpose of that entity publishing or circulating advertising promoting the services offered by the broker-dealer or assisting or providing information to persons to establish an account with the broker-dealer unless:

(a) The promotional or account-establishing functions are performed by persons licensed as securities agents representing the broker-dealer; or

(b) The promotional or account-establishing functions are performed by persons who are supervised by one of at least 2 persons at the bank, savings institution, trust company, savings and loan association or credit union who are officers, branch or assistant branch managers or other employees occupying a similar office or performing similar functions at each location where promotional or account-opening functions are performed, and are licensed as securities agents representing the broker-dealer.

(9) Each broker-dealer which by contract, agreement or other means provides securities services on the premises of a financial institution that is not licensed as a broker-dealer shall:

(a) Perform the securities services within a specific area on the premises of the financial institution designated by agreement between the broker-dealer and the financial institution. Nothing in this paragraph prohibits the financial institution from carrying out other activities within the designated area, provided that no promotional signs or materials shall be displayed within the designated area other than those relating to the securities services;

(b) Prominently display the identity of the licensed broker-dealer in the area on the premises of the financial institution designated under par. (a);

(c) Disclose the identity of the licensed broker-dealer in, without limitation because of enumeration, all advertising, correspondence, business cards, promotional materials and securities records relating to the broker-dealer's securities services provided on the premises of the financial institution. Any materials described in this paragraph may not display the financial institution's name or logotype in a manner that would mislead customers as to the financial institution's role in connection with the securities services being offered by the broker-dealer. For purposes of this paragraph, if the broker-dealer's name is no less prominent in the materials than the name of the financial institution in the size, style or color of type or in the placement or by use of logotypes, the materials are presumed not misleading.

(d) Establish written supervisory procedures and a system for applying the procedures. The procedures shall comply with sub. (2) and shall be designed to accomplish certain supervisory functions, including but not limited to the following:

1. Prevention and detection of violations of ch. 551, Stats., and any applicable rules and orders thereunder;

2. Establishment of a system under which the broker-dealer approves prior to use copies of all advertising used by the financial institution relating to the securities services conducted on the premises of the financial institution for the purpose of ensuring compliance with ss. 551.41 and 551.53, Stats.; and

3. Establishment of a system for prompt and proper execution and settlement of securities transaction orders, the safekeeping of customer funds and securities and the maintenance of books and records.

(e) Disclose in writing prior to or at the time of opening an account that the securities services are provided by the broker-dealer and not by the financial institution, that non-deposit investment products are not guaranteed by the financial institution, are not deposits or other obligations of the financial institution, are not subject to any federal deposit insurance protection and involve risk, including possible loss of principal.

(10) (a) Except as provided in par. (b), each licensed broker-dealer engaged in a general securities business that ceases to do business at a principal or branch office located in Wisconsin shall mail to each Wisconsin customer with an account at the office at least 14 days before the cessation of business at the office a written notification that shall contain the following information:

1. The date on which the office will cease to do business;

2. A description of the procedure a customer may follow to maintain the customer's account with the broker-dealer, transfer the account to another broker-dealer, or have securities and funds held by the broker-dealer delivered to the customer;

3. The name and telephone number of a person representing the broker-dealer who may be contacted without expense to the customer to answer questions regarding items in subd. 2; and

4. Any additional information necessary under the circumstances to clarify the information prescribed in this paragraph.

(b) The notification requirement under par. (a) is not applicable to the cessation of business at an office where the cessation is caused by illness or death of all licensed agents at that office, if the cessation of business at the office does not occur for a period exceeding 14 days.

(11) Each broker-dealer shall disclose in writing to customers at the time of opening an account, any custody fees, service fees, or maintenance fees that may be charged to the customer and the basis upon which the charges are determined. Customers shall receive written notice at least 45 days prior to the imposition of any new custody, service, maintenance or similar fees, or any changes to existing fees of that nature.
