

WISCONSIN ETHICS COMMISSION
Proposed Rule Making Order

INTRODUCTORY CLAUSE

The Wisconsin Ethics Commission proposes an order to create ch. ETH 26, related to settlement of campaign finance, lobbying, and ethics violations.

RULE SUMMARY

A. Statutes interpreted: s. 19.49(2)(b)10., Stats.

B. Statutory authority: The Wisconsin Ethics Commission is specifically directed to promulgate this rule pursuant to s. 19.49(2)(b)10., Stats.

10. The commission shall, by rule, prescribe categories of civil offenses which the commission will agree to compromise and settle without a formal investigation upon payment of specified amounts by the alleged offender.

The Commission also has general authority for the promulgation of rules to carry out the requirements of Chapters 11, 13, and 19.

s. 11.1304(17), Stats.:

11.1304 Duties of the ethics commission. The commission shall:
(17) Promulgate rules to administer this chapter.

s. 19.48(1), Stats.:

19.48 Duties of the ethics commission. The commission shall:
(1) Promulgate rules necessary to carry out ch. 11, subch. III of ch. 13, and this subchapter.

s. 227.11(2)(a), Stats.:

227.11 Extent to which chapter confers rule-making authority.

(2) Rule-making authority is expressly conferred on an agency as follows:

(a) Each agency may promulgate rules interpreting the provisions of any statute enforced or administered by the agency, if the agency considers it necessary to effectuate the purpose of the statute, but a rule is not valid if the rule exceeds the bounds of correct interpretation.

C. Explanation of agency authority: The Ethics Commission is required to prescribe, by rule, categories of civil offenses which the Commission will agree to compromise and settle without a formal investigation upon payment of specified amounts by the alleged offender. The Commission may only settle alleged offenses, which in the opinion of the Commission, constitute a minor violation, a violation caused by excusable neglect, or which for other good cause shown is not in the public interest to prosecute.

D. Related statute(s) or rule(s): ss. 11.1400, 13.69, and 19.579, Stats.

E. Plain language analysis: The rule sets forth categories of civil offenses and specifies the amounts for which the Commission will agree to settle various violations of Chapter 11, subchapter III of Chapter 13, and subchapter III of Chapter 19.

F. Summary of, and comparison with, existing or proposed federal regulations: There is no existing or proposed federal regulation that is intended to address the activities to be regulated by the proposed rule.

G. Comparison with similar rules in adjacent states:

Illinois: Permits settlement of similar campaign finance violations subject to approval by the state board of elections. The board of elections publishes the factors they will consider in offering a settlement. State law prescribes standard late fees for various reports and administrative code further details the penalties to be assessed for late reports based on the total amount of receipts, expenditures, and the committee's balance at the end of the report. ILL. ADMIN. CODE tit. 26 § 125.425. These civil penalties range from the lowest category of $25 per business day for the first violation, $50 per business day for the second violation, and $75 per business day for the third and each subsequent violation; to the highest category of $50 per business day for the first violation, $100 per business day for the second violation, and $200 per business day for the third and each subsequent violation. Id.

Iowa: Permits settlement of similar violations subject to approval by the Ethics and Campaign Finance Disclosure Board, but does not publish a schedule of potential settlement terms for violations. The Board is authorized to administratively resolve late reports by assessment of automatic civil penalties as established by the Board. IOWA ADMIN. CODE r. 351—9.4(5).

Michigan: Permits settlement of similar violations subject to approval by the Secretary of State. The Secretary of State publishes information related to good cause waivers of late filing fees, but does not have a full settlement schedule for all violations. State law provides a standard $10 per business day late fee for campaign registration statements. MICH. COMP. LAWS § 169.224. State law also provides an escalating penalty for late campaign finance reports of $25 for each business day the report remains unfiled, an additional $25 for each business day after the first three business days the report remains unfiled, and an additional $50 for each business day after the first ten business days the report remains unfiled. MICH. COMP. LAWS § 169.232.

Minnesota: Permits settlement of similar campaign finance, lobbying, and ethics violations with the approval of the Campaign Finance and Public Disclosure Board. The manuals published by this Board state various amounts as late fees for different reports. Additionally, the Office of Administrative Hearings uses a penalty matrix designed by the Secretary of State's office to provide guidance for most campaign finance violations.

ETH 26.02 Settlement of campaign finance violations.

- (1) Failure to timely file a continuing report or September report.

(a) If the commission receives a continuing or September report within 30 days after the due date for that report, the commission may issue a written warning to the registrant.

(b) If the commission receives a continuing or September report within 31 to 60 days after the due date for that report, the commission may extend a settlement offer to the registrant as follows:

1. If the registrant has committed no prior offenses, a settlement offer of $100 may be extended.
2. If the registrant has committed a prior offense, a settlement offer of $200 may be extended.

(c) If the commission receives a continuing or September report within 61 to 90 days after the due date for that report, the commission may extend a settlement offer to the registrant as follows:

1. If the registrant has committed no prior offenses, a settlement offer of $200 may be extended.
2. If the registrant has committed a prior offense, a settlement offer of $300 may be extended.

(d) If the commission receives a continuing or September report within 91 to 120 days after the due date for that report, the commission may extend a settlement offer to the registrant as follows:

1. If the registrant has committed no prior offenses, a settlement offer of $300 may be extended.
2. If the registrant has committed a prior offense, a settlement offer of $400 may be extended.

(e) If the commission receives a continuing or September report more than 120 days after the due date for that report, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $500.

(2) FAILURE TO TIMELY FILE A PREPRIMARY, PREELECTION, OR POST-ELECTION REPORT.

(a) If the commission receives a preprimary, preelection, or post-election report one day after the due date for that report, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $100.

(b) If the commission receives a preprimary, preelection, or post-election report 2 days after the due date for that report, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $150.

(c) If the commission receives a preprimary, preelection, or post-election report 3 days after the due date for that report, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $200.

(d) If the commission receives a preprimary, preelection, or post-election report 4 days after the due date for that report, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $250.

(e) If the commission receives a preprimary, preelection, or post-election report 5 days after the due date for that report, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $300.

(f) If the commission receives a preprimary, preelection, or post-election report 6 days after the due date for that report, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $350.

(g) If the commission receives a preprimary, preelection, or post-election report 7 days after the due date for that report, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $400.

(h) If the commission receives a preprimary, preelection, or post-election report 8 days after the due date for that report, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $450.

(i) If the commission receives a preprimary, preelection, or post-election report 9 or more days after the due date for that report, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $500.

(3) FAILURE TO TIMELY PAY A FILING FEE.

(a) If the commission receives a filing fee within one to 15 days after the due date, the commission may issue a written warning to the registrant.

(b) If the commission receives a filing fee within 16 to 45 days after the due date, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $300.

(c) If the commission receives a filing fee within 46 to 90 days after the due date, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $500.

(d) If the commission receives a filing fee more than 90 days after the due date, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $800.

(4) FAILURE TO TIMELY FILE A LATE CONTRIBUTION REPORT. If a registrant fails to timely file a late contribution report, the commission may extend a settlement offer of 5 percent of the total amount of the late contribution.

(5) FAILURE TO TIMELY FILE A SPECIFIC EXPRESS ADVOCACY REPORT. If a person fails to timely file a specific express advocacy report, the commission may extend a settlement offer of 5 percent of the disbursement not timely reported.

(6) FAILURE TO PROVIDE CONTRIBUTOR INFORMATION.

(a) If contributor information is not included on a campaign finance report, but is received within 30 days after notification from the commission, the commission may issue a written warning to the registrant.

(b) If contributor information is not included on a campaign finance report, but is received more than 30 days after notification from the commission, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $100 plus 10 percent of the total amount of contributions with incomplete contributor information.

(7) FAILURE TO PROVIDE DISBURSEMENT INFORMATION.

(a) If disbursement information is not included on a campaign finance report, but is received within 30 days after notification from the commission, the commission may issue a written warning to the registrant.

(b) If disbursement information is not included on a campaign finance report, but is received more than 30 days after notification from the commission, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $100 plus 10 percent of the total amount of disbursements with incomplete disbursement information.

(8) CASH BALANCE DISCREPANCIES. If a registrant's cash balance at the beginning of a reporting period does not match the registrant's cash balance reported at the end of the prior reporting period; or the reported beginning balance of a report, plus all receipts, minus all expenditures, does not equal the reported ending balance of that report; and the cash balance is corrected:

(a) Within 30 days after notification from the commission, the commission may issue a written warning to the registrant.

(b) More than 30 days after notification from the commission, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $100 plus 10 percent of the cash balance discrepancy.

(9) EXCEEDING CONTRIBUTION LIMITS. If a registrant receives an excess contribution, the commission may extend a settlement offer in the amount by which the contribution exceeded the applicable limit.

(10) PROHIBITED CORPORATE, UNION, ASSOCIATION, OR TRIBAL CONTRIBUTIONS.

(a) If a registrant receives a contribution contrary to s. 11.1112, Stats., the commission may extend a settlement offer in the amount of 1.5 times the amount of the contribution, up to a maximum of $500, plus surrendering the amount of the unlawful contribution.

(b) If a person makes a contribution contrary to s. 11.1112, Stats., the commission may extend a settlement offer in the amount of 1.5 times the amount of the contribution.

(11) PROHIBITED LOBBYIST CONTRIBUTIONS.

(a) If a candidate committee receives a contribution in violation of s. 13.625, Stats., the commission may extend a settlement offer requiring the return of the contribution to the lobbyist.

(b) If a lobbyist makes a contribution in violation of s. 13.625, Stats., the commission may extend a settlement offer in the amount of 1.5 times the amount of the contribution, up to a maximum of $1,000.

(12) AGGRAVATING OR MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES. Notwithstanding the settlement offer amounts specified in this section, the commission may consider aggravating or mitigating circumstances in determining the terms of any settlement offer that may be extended.

ETH 26.03 Settlement of lobbying violations.

(1) FAILURE TO TIMELY FILE A STATEMENT OF LOBBYING ACTIVITY AND EXPENDITURES.

(a) If the commission receives a statement of lobbying activity and expenditures within 2 business days after the due date for that report:

1. If the principal has committed no prior offenses, no penalty may be imposed.
2. If the principal has committed a prior offense, the commission may issue a written warning to the principal.

(b) If the commission receives a statement of lobbying activity and expenditures within 3 to 5 days after the due date for that report:

1. If the principal has committed no prior offenses, the commission may issue a written warning to the principal.

2. If the principal has committed a prior offense, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $50.

(c) If the commission receives a statement of lobbying activity and expenditures within 6 to 15 days after the due date for that report:

1. If the principal has committed no prior offenses, the commission may issue a written warning to the principal.

2. If the principal has committed a prior offense, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $100.

(d) If the commission receives a statement of lobbying activity and expenditures within 16 to 29 days after the due date for that report:

1. If the principal has committed no prior offenses, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $50.

2. If the principal has committed a prior offense, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $250.

(e) If the commission receives a statement of lobbying activity and expenditures 30 days or more after the due date for that report:

1. If the principal has committed no prior offenses, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $100.

2. If the principal has committed a prior offense, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $500.

(2) FAILURE TO TIMELY FILE A 15 DAY REPORT.

(a) If the commission does not timely receive a 15 day report and the principal has no prior offenses:

1. If the unreported interest is less than 10 percent of the principal's total effort, the commission may issue a written warning to the principal.

2. If the unreported interest is 10 percent or more of the principal's total effort, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $25 per late reported interest.

(b) If the commission does not timely receive a 15 day report and the principal has one prior offense:

1. If the unreported interest is less than 10 percent of the principal's total effort, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $50 per late reported interest.

2. If the unreported interest is 10 percent or more of the principal's total effort, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $100 per late reported interest.

(c) If the commission does not timely receive a 15 day report and the principal has 2 or more prior offenses, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $100 per late reported interest.

(3) AGGRAVATING OR MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES. Notwithstanding the settlement terms provided in this section, the commission may consider aggravating or mitigating circumstances in determining the terms of any settlement offer that may be extended.

ETH 26.04 Settlement of ethics violations.

(1) FAILURE TO TIMELY FILE A STATEMENT OF ECONOMIC INTERESTS.

(a) If the commission receives a statement of economic interests within 15 days after the due date for the statement of economic interests, the commission may issue a written warning to the individual.

(b) If the commission receives a statement of economic interests 16 or more days after the due date for the statement of economic interests, the commission may extend a settlement offer of $100, plus $100 for every additional 15 days after the 16th day following the due date.

(2) AGGRAVATING OR MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES. Notwithstanding the settlement terms provided in this section, the commission may consider aggravating or mitigating circumstances in determining the terms of any settlement offer that may be extended.

SECTION 2. EFFECTIVE DATE.

This rule shall take effect on the first day of the month following publication in the Wisconsin administrative register as provided in s. 227.22 (2), Stats.
