

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

EXECUTIVE ORDER #271

Relating to a Special Session of the Legislature on Welfare Reform

WHEREAS, since 2011, the State of Wisconsin has invested over $300 million of state funding into worker training, cut taxes by over $8 billion, and curtailed burdensome regulations that have stifled economic growth; and

WHEREAS, these actions have enabled the Wisconsin economy to grow significantly, leading to near-record low unemployment rates, significant future capital investment, and between 80,000 and 100,000 open positions regularly reported by the Job Center of Wisconsin; and

WHEREAS, the growth of Wisconsin's economy and subsequent job creation have led to a labor shortage, with a recent survey revealing that 80 percent of employers in Wisconsin reported difficulty finding workers and 51 percent listed labor availability as the top public policy issue facing their business; and

WHEREAS, there are thousands of able-bodied recipients on public assistance in Wisconsin who can work, look for work or engage in worker training; and

WHEREAS, employment teaches valuable skills necessary to pursue the American dream and connects individuals to society and its values; and

WHEREAS, public assistance programs should provide support and services to lead able-bodied recipients to employment;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, SCOTT WALKER, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, pursuant to Article IV, Section 11, and Article V, Section 4 of the Wisconsin Constitution, do hereby require the convening of a special session of the Legislature at the Capitol in Madison, to commence at 11 a.m. on January 18, 2018, solely to consider and act upon legislation relating to the following:
