(b) Each agency may prescribe forms and procedures in connection with any statute enforced or administered by it, if the agency considers it necessary to effectuate the purpose of the statute, but this paragraph does not authorize the imposition of a substantive requirement in connection with a form or procedure.”

Related statute or rule: Wis. Stat. § 102.15(1) and (2); Wis. Admin. Code, ss. DWD ch. 80.

Plain language analysis: 2015 Wisconsin Act 55 (Act 55) transferred the adjudication of disputed worker’s compensation claims and related claims from the Department of Workforce Development (DWD) to the Division of Hearings and Appeals (DHA) in the Department of Administration and authorized DHA to adopt its own rules of procedure. Act 55 also provided for the direct transfer to DHA of rules in Wis. Admin. Code, ch. DWD 80 that were primarily related to adjudicatory functions, and those rules are currently in Wis. Admin. Code, ch. HA 4.

This proposed rule order brings HA 4 in compliance with the requirements of Act 55. It makes technical changes necessitated by the transfer of rules under Act 55, including adding non-substantive provisions regarding the statutory authority for the transferred rules, the manner which forms, papers and materials may be served on DHA, and the use of stipulations in adjudicatory proceedings before DHA. It states that substantive rules promulgated by DWD apply in the adjudication of disputes before DHA and incorporates by reference DWD rules governing review of compromises and the inspection and copying of records. It also adds provisions codifying DHA’s current procedures for managing its caseload in the adjudication of disputed worker’s compensation and related claims, including its current practice for mediation in worker's compensation claims after a hearing application has been filed. It also makes a number of stylistic changes to the transferred rules.

Section 1 creates provisions setting out the specific proceedings in which ch. HA 4 applies (HA § 4.01) and general definitions (HA § 4.02). Section 1 also creates a provision (§ HA 4.03) stating that:

-the provisions of substantive rules promulgated by DWD in ch. DWD 80, apply in the adjudication of disputed worker's compensation and related claims by DHA.

-the DWD rule governing the inspection and copying of records applies to records in the custody of DHA.

-the DWD rule governing action on compromises applies to compromises acted upon by DHA.

Sections 2, 6, 7, 9, 10, 12, 13, 14, 15, and 16 make stylistic or technical changes in existing rules already transferred to DHA under Act 55. (§§ HA 4.04 (1), (2), (3)(d) and (e), HA 4.07, HA 4.08 (2), (3), and (4), HA 4.11 (1), (2) (intro.), (a), and (b), HA 4.13 (intro.), (1), and (3), HA 4.15, HA 4.16, and HA 4.17.)

Section 3 creates provisions setting out DHA's current procedures for managing its caseload in the adjudication of disputed worker's compensation and related claims (§ HA 4.04 (3)(a), (b) and (c), and (4).)

Sections 3, 4, 5, 8, 11 reproduce provisions within ch. HA 4 that parallel current rules retained in ch. DWD 80, and that are necessary due to the transfer of adjudication of disputed worker's compensation and related claims to DHA by Act 55. These include:

-§ HA 4.04 (5), regarding information to be provided to DHA when acting on compromises, tracking § DWD 80.02 (2)(intro.), (2)(f), and (3m).

-§ HA 4.05 allowing for appearances before DHA by an attorney or agent, tracking the last sentence of § DWD 80.06.

-§ HA 4.06, dealing with the service and filing of material in matters pending before DHA, tracking § DWD 80.07.

-§ HA 4.09, dealing with the use of stipulations in matter pending before DHA, tracking DWD § 80.10.

-§ HA 4.14 regarding the submission of reports of certain experts for use in hearings before DHA, tracking § DWD 80.21.

Section 17 codifies DHA's existing practice for mediation in worker's compensation claims after a hearing application has been filed. (§ HA 4.18.)

Summary of, and comparison with, existing or proposed federal regulation: There is no existing or proposed federal regulation that is intended to address the activities to be regulated by the rule.
