18. Compare With Approaches Being Used by Neighboring States (Illinois, Iowa, Michigan and Minnesota)

Illinois: Illinois does not administer a statewide electrical program. Inspection fees are established by each municipality with administrative authority.

Iowa: The Iowa Department of Public Safety administers a statewide electrical program. Rules of the Department [661 IAC, 550.5 (1) to (8)] establish fees for services provided by the electrical inspection program. Generally, fees are assessed as follows:

- The fee for each separate inspection of an installation, replacement, alteration, or repair is $25.
- The fee for services, change of services, temporary services, additions, alterations, or repairs on either primary or secondary services are as follows:
  - Zero to one hundred ampere capacity, $25 plus $5 per branch circuit or feeder.
  - One hundred one to two hundred ampere capacity, $35 plus $5 per branch circuit or feeder.
  - For each additional one hundred ampere capacity or fraction thereof, $20 plus $5 per branch circuit or feeder.

The rules also specify the fees assessed for field irrigation systems, reinspections, inspections requested by an owner, fire and accident inspections, inspections for installations requiring more than six months in the process of construction, and inspections for installations for which a permit has not been filed.

Michigan: The Michigan Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs administers a statewide electrical program through the Construction Code Commission. Rules of the Department do not establish specific inspection fees, but require fees charged by townships, villages, cities, counties and the Commission for inspection of construction to bear a reasonable relationship to all costs, including overhead of services rendered [Mich Admin Code, R 408.30221 (1)].

Minnesota: The Minnesota Department of Labor and Industry administers a statewide electrical program. The Minnesota statutes establish fees for electrical inspections [2018 Minnesota Statutes, Section 326B.37]. Generally, fees are assessed as follows:

- The minimum fee for each separate inspection of an installation, replacement, alteration, or repair is $35.
