15. Benefits of Implementing the Rule and Alternative(s) to Implementing the Rule The benefit of implementing the rule is to ensure that the administrative rules relating to athlete agent registration reflect current agency practice, and appropriately reflect and complement the statutory requirements. Not implementing the rule will result in stakeholder confusion as to process and what the law requires of them to register as an athlete agent.
16. Long Range Implications of Implementing the Rule The long range implication of implementing the rule is that the athlete agent rules will accurately reflect current agency practices and more appropriately complement the statutes.
17. Compare With Approaches Being Used by Federal Government

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES Fiscal Estimate & Economic Impact Analysis

The Sports Agent Responsibility and Trust Act regulates athlete agents at the federal level.

Consumer Protection Provisions: 15 U.S.C. § 7802 to 7804

Athlete agents are prohibited from using false or misleading promises or things of value to persuade an athlete into signing an agency contract. It also requires a disclosure be provided to the athlete or his parent/guardian, and be acknowledged, that signing an agency contract may terminate the athlete's eligibility to participate in college athletics, and that the athlete and the athlete agent must both inform the athletic director of the athlete's institution of the contract within 72 hours. Further, athlete agents are prohibited from pre or post-dating a contract. Enforcement is carried out under the Federal Trade Commission Act or may be investigated, and violations pursued by a state attorney general.

Protections for Educational Institutions: 15 U.S.C. § 7805

Educational institutions affected by an agency agreement may sue athlete agents for damages.

Sense of Congress Declaration: 15 U.S.C. § 7807

Congress recommends that states adopt the UAAA.

18. Compare With Approaches Being Used by Neighboring States (Illinois, Iowa, Michigan and Minnesota)

Illinois:

Illinois has repealed its athlete agent act and no longer requires or issues a credential for the athlete agent profession.

Iowa:

Iowa does not have administrative rules regulating athlete agents but adopts the UAAA in statute (IA Stats. § 9A.114).

Michigan:

Michigan does not have statutes or administrative rules specific to the regulation of athlete agents.

Minnesota:

Minnesota does not have administrative rules for the regulation of athlete agents but does adopt the RUAAA as Wisconsin does (MN Stats. § 81A).
