Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate:

Pass-through entities electing to pay Wisconsin tax on income at the entity level may claim a credit for net taxes paid by the entity on the same income taxable in another state. The proposed rule references relevant laws, adds examples, and clarifies that a Wisconsin resident may not claim a credit for taxes paid by an electing pass-through entity.

Any fiscal effect from the statutory changes would have been included in the bill that allowed pass-through entities to elect to pay tax at the entity level, 2017 Wisconsin Act 368. There is no fiscal effect from the implementation of the statutes under the rule, because the rule change only implements existing law. Additionally, there is no fiscal effect from the repeal of the outdated provisions in the proposed rule.
