sited.

SEC. 10. If said corporation shall not within three years from the passage of this act commence the construction of said rail road, then the rights, privileges, and powers of said corporation, under this act, shall be null and void.

May enter on lands.

SEC. 11. It shall and may be lawful for said company, their officers, engineers and agents to enter upon any land for the purpose of exploring, surveying, and locating the route of said rail road, doing therefor no unnecessary damage; and when the said route shall be determined by the said company, it shall be lawful for them, their agents, officers, engineers, contractors, and servants, at any time to enter upon, take possession of, and use such lands, not exceeding one hundred feet in width along the line of said route, subject however, to the payment of such compensation as the company may have agreed to pay therefor, or such as shall be ascertained in the manner hereinafter directed and provided in such cases respectively; and said company are further authorized by their officers, engineers, agents, and servants, to enter upon lands adjacent to the rail road, beyond the limits of one hundred feet, in the manner provided in this act when necessary for the purpose of erecting depot buildings, station houses, and necessary fixtures for the operation and for the business of said road, and for the purpose of making drains and giving a proper direction of water courses across or along said road, when the same are necessary beyond the limits of said road, and to remove all substances and things which might endanger, obstruct, or interfere with the free use of said road, and to deposit earth, gravel, stone, and other materials for embankments and structures necessary to the construction and repairs of said road, doing however, no unnecessary damage; and all lands so acquired, and all damages which shall be done to any lands or property under the provisions of this section, shall be ascertained and paid for in the manner and agreeable to the provision hereinafter provided; and when such damages shall have been paid for or tendered, the title of the land occupied by such fixtures, excavations, and embankments, shall vest in fee simple in said company.

settled.

SEC. 12. When the said corporation cannot agree with the owner or owners of such required land, for the purchase thereof, or as to the compensation to be paid therefor, or when by reason of the legal incapacity or absence of any such owner or owners, no such agreement or purchase can be made, then and in that case, it shall be lawful for any judge of the circuit court of the county, on application of either party, and at the cost and charge of such corporation, to appoint three disinterested persons residing in said county, whose duty it shall be to view and examine or survey such lands, with the buildings and improvements, if any, thereon, and to estimate the value of the land so taken or required by the said company, and all damages which the owner or owners thereof shall sustain, or may have sustained by reason of the taking of the same for the construction and use of said road or works appertaining thereto, and the persons so appointed, before entering upon the discharge of such duties, shall take an oath before some justice of the peace or other person competent by law to administer oaths, faithfully and according to the best of their abilities to examine the lands so taken or required by said company, and impartially to estimate and appraise the value of the same, and the damage or injury which the owner or owners thereof shall have sustained or may sustain by reason of the taking and using thereof by the said company; whereupon such commissioners shall proceed to examine the premises and estimate the value of such land, and the amount of damages, if any, over and above the benefits and advantages which may accrue to the owners as aforesaid, and shall make a report in writing of such valuation under their hands and seals, to said judge, and shall return the same within thirty days after their appointment to the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which they reside, and it shall be the duty of the clerk to file the same, and in case no appeal shall be made within thirty days after the filing of said report as hereinafter provided, then the said clerk shall record the same at the expense of said company, and judgment of the said court shall be entered thereon, on motion of either party, at any term of said court: Provided, That either party may appeal to said court within thirty days after said report shall have been filed in the clerk's office, and such appeal shall be tried in the same manner as other issues are tried in said court, and the jury empaneled to try the same shall find the value of the land so taken or required by said company and the damages which the owner or owners thereof shall have sustained or may sustain by the taking of the same, and judgment of the court shall be entered accordingly: Provided also, That it shall not be lawful for the said commissioners or said court to proceed in the assessment of damages or in the valuation of any lands, or materials as aforesaid, in the absence of the owner or owners thereof, his, her, or their agents or attorneys, unless it shall be shown to them by competent testimony that the said owner or owners shall have had at least five days' notice of the time and place at which such assessment or valuation was to be made, or that the said owner or owners are absent from the state of Wisconsin, and if the said owner or owners shall be minors or non compos mentis, or absent from the state, the service of notice may be made on the guardian or trustee, if there be any, in such manner as the court may direct: Provided also, That upon the making and filing of any report as aforesaid, and payment or legal tender of the amount of any valuation or appraisal specified therein, to the owner or owners of any such lands, his, her, or their legal representatives, the said company, their agents, or the contractor for making or repairing said rail road, may immediately take and use the same without awaiting the issue of any appeal brought thereon.

Company entitled to estate.

SEC. 13. Whenever any judgment shall have been entered as hereinbefore provided, for the value of any lands or for any damages for the taking and using of the same, and the amount specified in such judgment shall have been paid or tendered to the owner or owners of such lands, his, her, or their legal representatives, the said company shall be entitled to the estate and interest in the same as fully as if it had been conveyed in fee simple; and if such valuation be not received when tendered, it may at any time thereafter be received, or may be collected from said company by action at law at the cost and expense of the person or persons entitled to the same: Provided, That the cost of any proceedings and judgments specified in the last preceding section shall be taxed by the court and paid by said company, except in cases where upon appeal the verdict of the jury shall be for the same or a less sum than that reported by the said commissioners.

Not to obstruct highway.

SEC. 14. The said rail road shall be so constructed as not to impede or obstruct the free use and passage of any public road or roads which may cross the same, and in all places where such rail road may cross or in any manner interfere with any public road, it shall be the duty of said company to make or cause to be made a sufficient causeway or passage-way to enable all persons traveling such public road to pass over or under such rail road without inconvenience: Provided, That in cases where said rail road may cross or come in contact with any public or private road so as to occupy any part of such road, it shall be lawful for said company to construct such rail road across or upon such road, after altering and putting the same in as good condition as before; and for that purpose the said company shall, previous to occupying any part of such road, construct a new road in part or in whole, as may be necessary, on ground adjacent to the road, and in every respect complete such newly constructed road or part of a road so interfered with, as substantially as it was previous to the disturbance and occupancy thereof by said company.

SEC. 15. For the convenience of persons owning or possessing lands through which said rail road shall pass, it shall be the duty of said company when required to make a good and sufficient passage way over or under said rail road whenever the same may be necessary to enable the occupants of said lands to pass over or under the same with wagons, carts, and implements of husbandry as occasion may require: Provided, That said company shall in no case be required to make more than one such passage-way for each farm; and when any public road shall cross such rail road in any farm, the person owning or possessing such farm shall not be entitled to require said company to make any additional causeway. To make passage way.

SEC. 16. So soon as the net profits accruing and received from the use of said road, or part thereof, according to the provisions of this act, shall exceed six per cent. upon the amount of said capital stock paid in, the directors of said company shall make a dividend of such net profits among the stockholders in proportion to their respective shares. Proviso.

SEC. 17. This act shall be favorably construed to effect the purposes hereby intended and the same is hereby declared to be a public act, and copies thereof printed by authority of the state of Wisconsin, shall be received as evidence thereof. To make dividend.

SEC. 18. Any person who shall willfully and maliciously place any obstruction or thing upon the track of said road, or shall remove or damage any part thereof, in such a manner that the engine or cars may be impeded or thrown off the track shall be guilty of misdemeanor, whether such result shall happen or not, and shall be punished for every such offence by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not less than one nor more than five years, at the discretion of the court; and in case any damage shall result from the placing such obstructions or injury to said road, said party shall be liable to pay all such damage to said company, and to any other person damaged or injured thereby, and in case any accident shall happen in consequence of placing such obstruction or in consequence of breaking or injuring said road, whereby death may be Public act.
