Chap. 56.

An Act for the appointment of a Travelling Emigrant Agent.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Governor to appoint emigrant agent.

SECTION 1. An emigrant agent for the state of Wisconsin shall be appointed by the governor, whose duty it shall be to travel constantly between this state and the city of New York, from the first day of May next, to the first day of December next, and see that correct representations be made in eastern papers, of our great natural resources, advantages and privileges, and brilliant prospects for the future; and to use every honorable means in his power to induce emigrants to come to this state.

Power to remove.

SEC. 2. The governor shall have power to remove such agent for inefficiency and misconduct in the discharge of the duties of his office, and to appoint some proper person in his place.

Salary.

SEC. 3. The agent shall be entitled to receive the sum of fifteen hundred dollars out of the state treasury, at the end of his term of service: Provided, He shall obtain the certificate of the governor to the fact that he has faithfully and energetically performed the duties of his office, and that his exertions have been attended with sufficient benefit to the state at large, to entitle him to it, otherwise he shall receive no compensation.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Approved, March 31, 1853.
