

SEC. 3. So much of chapter 309 of the session laws of 1857, organizing the county of Oconto for judicial purposes, as contravenes the provisions of this act, is hereby repealed. Repealed.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 14th, 1858.

Chapter 11.

Published February 24th, 1858.

AN ACT to authorize the Judge of the Sixth Judicial Circuit to appoint a place for holding the Circuit Court in the County of Buffalo.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. The judge of the sixth judicial circuit, in the State of Wisconsin, is hereby authorized and directed to designate and appoint a suitable place for holding the circuit court, at the times appointed by law for holding the same in the county of Buffalo, until a proper place shall be provided at the county seat of said county for holding such courts. Judge to appoint a place of holding court.

SEC. 2. The judge of said sixth judicial circuit shall give at least thirty days' notice of the time and place so appointed for holding such court or courts in said county, by publishing the same in some newspaper printed in said county, if any such there be, otherwise by posting printed notices of the same in five of the most conspicuous places in said county, and such place shall be deemed and taken to be the county seat of said county, for all the purposes required by said court, until suitable county buildings shall be erected at the county seat of said county, or until otherwise provided by law. To give notice of the time and place for holding court.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 20, 1858.