

Chapter 147.

Published June 5th, 1858.

AN ACT to provide for the payment of certain State taxes in the county of Dodge.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

County board
to levy a tax of $1,510.

SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of the county board of supervisors of the county of Dodge, at their next annual session, to levy the amount of fifteen hundred and ten dollars on the said county, in the same manner as other State taxes are levied, and is to be in addition to the regular amount of State tax apportioned to said county, and be collected and returned in the same manner as other State taxes are levied, collected and returned; which said amount of fifteen hundred and ten dollars is the sum equitably due from said county of Dodge to the State of Wisconsin, in consequence of the apportionment of the same to Jefferson county with the towns of Portland, Shields, Emmet, Lebanon, Ashippun, and the fifth and sixth wards of the city of Watertown, being included in said apportionment as part of Jefferson county, and which are now, by the revision of the statute, included in the county of Dodge.

In case the county is divided.

SEC. 2. In case the county of Dodge is divided, taking of [off] said towns of Portland, Shields, Emmet, Lebanon, Ashippun, and the fifth and sixth wards of the city of Watertown, then only the equitable proportion of said fifteen hundred and ten dollars shall be levied on the remaining part of the county, and be collected and returned to the treasurer of the State in the same manner as other State taxes are levied, collected and returned. If so divided, the county in which said towns and wards shall be after such division, shall levy and return the balance to the State Treasurer, and the town clerk, or proper clerk of the towns of Portland, Shields, Emmett, Lebanon, Ashippun, and the fifth and sixth wards of the city of Watertown, which have not levied the proper taxes apportioned to them by the county board of Dodge county at its last session, shall immediately after the passage of this act, levy the said sums so apportioned to the said towns; and the said town treasurers of the said towns and wards which have not collected the taxes so levied by said county board, shall immediately proceed to collect and return the same, in the same manner, with the same power, and in the time after he shall receive the same as though it had been delivered to him at the time as provided for by chapter fifteen of the Revised Statutes.

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved May 17th, 1858.

Chapter 148.

Published June 13d, 1858.

AN ACT to exempt sixty days' earnings to Mechanics and Laborers.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. That the earnings of all persons for sixty days next preceding the issuing of any process from any court of record or justice of the peace against them shall be exempt from levy, seizure or sale upon such process; and the same shall not be liable to be garnisheed, or seizure by attachment, or levied upon by execution or sale on any final process issued from any court of this State.

Sixty days' earnings exempted.

Approved May 17th, 1858.