CHAPTER 184.

AN ACT to amend section 117. of chapter 15, of revised statutes, entitled "of towns and town officers, powers and duties of towns."

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Amendment. SECTION 1. Section one hundred and seventeen, of chapter fifteen, of revised statutes, is hereby amended as follows: the words in said section, "said stone monuments shall be set at least three feet deep in the ground, and stand at least two feet above the ground," are hereby stricken out, and the following words inserted in lieu thereof, "said stone monuments shall be set at least two feet deep in the ground, and shall project above the surface of the ground at least six inches;" and said section is further amended by adding to the close of said section the words, "and when by the survey any such monument shall require to be placed in any public highway, the supervisors of the towns are hereby authorized in their discretion to direct the omission of such monument."

Declaratory. SEC. 2. Nothing in this act shall be so construed as to require any alteration in the monuments erected or in process of erection under the provisions of the act to which this is amendatory.

Take effect. SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 19, 1859.
